Be recommended for adoption as a national VVAW policy, by working on 3rd world and oppressed groups.

National Objective 17
VVAW's national objective is to ensure that the adoption of any of its policies or objectives be based on a national level. VVAW recognizes the existence of political realities in the American school system. VVAW is not a school system, including schools, district lines, etc. VVAW is a national organization and its policies should be based on a national level.

National Objective 18

Whereas 3rd world and oppressed groups from active duty are given in a systematically discriminatory manner to racial minorities in substantially higher proportions than to whites, and such discharges permanently affect the economic and social capabilities of these third world veterans.

VVAW proposes a national campaign on all levels to change all less than honorable discharges in compliance with VVAW national objective 18, which states that there be only one type of discharge without distinction, and that this policy be retroactive.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTACT BETWEEN VVAW AND THIRD WORLD OR OTHER OPPRESSED GROUPS

1) OUTREACH

- A) INDIVIDUAL CONTACT IS TO BE MADE BETWEEN LOCAL VVAW CHAPTERS AND OPPRESSED GROUPS ON A PERSON TO PERSON BASIS. The person making initial contact is responsible for maintaining contact with the group and for reporting on it at chapter meetings and at national steering committee meetings. Person making initial contact should present to the group contacted the results of each of their chapters at national steering committee meetings.
- B) Regional co-ordinators and/or collectives are to report on contacts and results in each of their chapters at national steering committee meetings during regional Round Robin.
- 2) The local chapter and the other group should exchange participation in political education sessions and/or exchange information in search of common goals and areas in which the two groups can work together. (i.e. free breakfast programs, drug programs, joint support in each other's actions, exchange of speakers.)
- 3) Be specific in your chapter's commitments to the other group, and live up to it. Establish trust through personal, physical commitment rather than offering blankets and trinkets. Offer yours and time.
- 4) Local chapters should clearly define the limits of their support to local groups - Do not overrate the resources of your chapter. No commitment is better than an unfulfilled commitment.
- 5) VVAW should try to complement efforts of an existing third-world or oppressed group whenever possible rather than initiating parallel programs.
- 6) Suggested areas for local chapter activities are: Sponsor 3rd world speakers on campus or do VVAW activities, participate in local community programs, and in VA and draft counseling, support prison programs, (reform movements and prison unions), actively seek coalition with third-world groups on campuses and/or in the community.

POSITION STATE

Up until this time Vietnam Veterans Against the War's predecessor has been with the war in Vietnam and it's focus on us as veterans only. Our recovery into society has been an ideological back into that same racist society which caused imperialism and it's burning child, the Vietnam War. Our time spent in the military was an experience in racialized racism which pressed Third World brothers into the front lines to die or into military jails.

This war has also taught us the value of brotherhood by shared blood. To combat we learned that brotherhood meant survival. Now again we face a common foe, and to survive again we must struggle together as brothers.

One of the biggest problems in VVAW is that, as yet, our organization has had little success in relation to Third World people in general and Third World veterans in particular. We feel that one of the principle reasons for this has been that most of our efforts have been directed at relating to Third World people through our eyes instead of theirs. We decided that it would be more fruitful if we tried to listening, in connection with Third World people the particular problems of their community and work with them on the solutions. By relating to Third World people in terms of their own oppressions, we can, first of all, create an atmosphere for a better understanding of our racism and educate ourselves concerning it paving the way for a better understanding on the part of Third World people of where we are coming from and why and how our struggle is related to theirs.

As the struggle on the home front intensifies, black, brown, Indian and other Third World people have increasingly taken the leadership role and also the brunt of this racist society attacks.

We are presently trying to reestablish those bonds we found successful in Vietnam. In light of this realization it is hoped that we can begin to struggle as one people against our common oppressor.

WORKING WITH GIs

- 1) Fears: how to deal with it
 - a) do not work on post night off
 - b) work in the community around post as veterans and wait for GI to approach you.
 - c) work at personal problems level which has limited effectiveness
 - d) offer a service to the GI
 - e) must relate to GIs as providing the leading ideas for struggle - treat GIs to lead you
 - f) must be community support for any struggle
 - g) must realize the oppression which came and will befall GIs who oppose military and educate them on what consequences of an action are - NO BULLSHIT
 - h) you are there to serve the GI, not the other way around
 - i) know the UCMJ and what are the individuals rights under that set of laws and what resources there are to help

GI WORKSHOP

A. HISTORICAL NOTES ON CIVILIAN (NOT ACTIVE-DUTY) GI PROJECTS.

In general, civilian run projects, mostly coffee houses, have died out over the past year. What follows is a general analysis of some of the problems that helped reduce the effectiveness of the civilian run projects. We did not discuss the whole area of active-duty run projects, although this area does need to be discussed in depth.

1. Missionary attitude: civilian organizers tried to move in and dictate to GIs that the GIs should run.
2. Having done their civilian run, civilians tried to impose their politics on GIs. Their revolutionary syndrome.
3. National unproductive: civilians tried to organize GIs around national issues without understanding the need to organize around local issues.
4. Racism: Projects were run by whites with little understanding of the struggles of minority peoples, especially black GIs.
5. No Money.
6. Lack of support from the local community, in some cases meeting open repression.
7. Apathy and fear of GIs.
8. Women and the question of sexism was handled poorly, which has led to very little female participation in projects, service-women and civilians.
9. Transience of GIs negated possibility of mass work.

What is the goal of doing GI organizing.

The two major goals of organizing active-duty service people back a specific and a general content. The two goals are not exclusive and in fact must go together in forming a complete strategy.

Point one is to stop Imperialism; that is, to negate or reduce the strength of a war machine engaged in aggression and genocide.

Point two is to provide services or actions around service peoples' immediate needs, such as housing, relief from harassment, etc.

In viewing these goals, the workshop decided to focus on the specific problems of working with GIs and then on what specific and general programs VVAW can undertake to achieve these goals.

The primary contradiction in the military today is racism. The struggles of minority GIs provides the focus for current work around the GI movement. It is our opinion that VVAW should see its work on racism has primacy in regards to the GI movement. However, the work on racism must also go hand in hand with specific service work for individual GIs, ie military counseling, legal help, etc. We must not lose sight of the human element.

VALUES DIALOGUE

In the profile of the male group, it was noted that males had a "hard time" for a twofold reason. First, that they wished to be involved with others in order to find common ground from which to work. And second, to help men find the way to overcome feelings and the directions from which our problems as women originate the organization starts.

In order to do this, we asked around a set of questions, which seemed basic to their needs. As we went around the group, each person answered all the questions of every, in order to lend continuity to the situation.

These are the questions:

1. How did you get into VVAW?
2. How would you describe your degree of activity or inactivity?
3. What is the nature of women compared to men?
4. Are the women active?
5. What do the women do?
6. Are the women in any kind of group? If so describe the group.
7. How do you think women should be involved in VVAW?
8. What is your perception of how men in VVAW should relate to a "warrior caucus"?
9. Why do you stay in VVAW? What is your true motivation?

The answers to these questions gave us all a lot of insight into ourselves and each other. This was followed by part of an interview situation, in order to allow the men present to direct questions dealing with more specific problems. Even tho there are still many questions to be asked, and problems to be solved, a bare was laid.

There will be communication between the women (and any interested men) that will deal with projects and continue to encourage each other. The questionnaire will also be sent to each person on the communications list.

There is a problem that we will consider and attempt to deal with in our communications. It is one that seems to be a primary example of all our problems as both women and men within VVAW.

It appears to us that among the veterans there is an amplification of a common conditioning men experience from birth. That a man comes in from the bush, he finds it less painful to deal with that experience if he has no close personal contacts in the bush to deal with.

This is carried over into civilian life. If he comes under severe stress, he tends to withdraw completely from the people he cares about the most, which often includes a woman.

The problem this created for a woman is dual in nature. Because of her primary conditioning, she feels incorrectly that she is merely a back-up force. So, when the man cuts her off, she finds herself with the inability to assert herself.

We have only begun to confront the problems involved. They will continue to face all of us- gradually reduced, we hope. Therefore, we must continue the dialogue we began last night and so urge that workshops on the position of women within and around VVAW be held- on their own -at all future NCMS. Eventually action programs will evolve out of these, giving us greater opportunities to come to grips with these problems.

We are not revolutionaries
We are the very revolution itself
We fight Not for the right to call ourselves
Revolutionaries But for the right to live
What ever we call ourselves
If we cannot live We must call ourselves nothing
Because we will be nothing Don G. Kemp

Alabama WMA accepts the main liability of drafting an organizational program, incorporating the clinic within the clinic and also with the Internal Revenue Service as Non-profit educational organization, so that donations of money and equipment will be tax deductible and also establishing a municipal co-directorship with WMA as the executive, with a Board of Directors as trusteeship, and from the Black professional community (clergy, doctors, lawyers) until thoroughness is prepared to staff and recommend policy of the clinic, and also create a means of continued fundings.

4. The national response responsibility will be to establish contacts on the regular chapter and general membership level to solicit active support from:

- A. professional paramedicals, nurses, business people, etc.
- B. para-professionals-medical and corporate
- C. donations to VFW Operation County Fair, California region
- D. supplies and medical equipment sent to VFW Alabama, with duplicate packing slip utilizing the United Parcel Service.
- E. any and all help in approaching local foundation and political organizations in Florida.

VI. Immediate aid station will be established in the community, and it is estimated that the commitment of building a structure cannot be initiated until April (during Easter vacation) when the California region and supporters from other regions and chapters will convene to meet in Loma Chita to help with the clinic proper. Personnel should bear in mind that Loma Chita is a poor Black rural community and logistical support should be provided within your own areas; the encampment will be a bivouac arrangement.

- A. primary emphasis on clinic proper
- B. draft counseling-application to Third World
- C. G.I. Rights
- D. special problems of the community
- E. VA counseling
- F. legal aid and political education
- G. PWS with veterans

VII. What is being done presently with Operation County Fair?
The California region has released a mailing (pink sheet) and raised several hundred dollars to date. They are also contacting musical groups for concerts.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR
MILWAUKEE CHAPTER

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) has been publicly identified as an organization formed in Milwaukee during May, 1971, from the Vietnam veterans who returned from participating in Washington, D. C. demonstrations held during April, 1971. This organization consists of various Vietnam veteran returnees and their main purpose is protesting the war and racism.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL DATA

A. Officers

An undated VVAW pamphlet issued by VVAW Regional Headquarters, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, during August, 1972, reflected JOHN A. LINDQUIST as Regional Coordinator; ANN BAILEY as Regional Secretary; and, PAUL N. RUEZ, JR., Peace Education Director.

These individuals also direct policy in the Milwaukee VVAW Chapter and ANN BAILEY, in addition, is leader of the VVAW women's caucus.

(Source [REDACTED]
December 21, 1972)

B. Membership

The Milwaukee VVAW Chapter has no formal membership, however, the main nucleus consists of about eight women who compromise the women's caucus and approximately fifteen males. Additional support is elicited from walk-ins or street people whenever activities are planned.

(Source [REDACTED]
December 21, 1972)

C. Headquarters

It was determined that the name Veterans Union was used by VVAW in order to obtain use of University facilities during the school year 1971-72; however, the name Veterans Union is no longer used by VVAW and is no longer a campus-approved organization for the school year 1972-73.

D. Aims and Purposes

The Milwaukee VVAW Chapter adheres to the aims and objectives adopted by the organization on a national level, however, most of the energy is channeled towards the anti-war issue and finding employment for returning Vietnam veterans. In addition, VVAW leaders are to keep in touch with the National VVAW Office. They sponsor two mass campouts per year, which are open to VVAW members and sympathizers. They sponsor area outreach work which consists of sending people throughout the State of Wisconsin, to assist other movement organizations. They also sponsor programs to help returnees with Post-Vietnam Syndrome (PVS), which is basically a uniquely intense sort of post trauma syndrome.

II. ACTIVITIES

An article appeared in the June 4, 1972, issue of "The Milwaukee Journal," a daily Milwaukee, Wisconsin, newspaper, which stated in part that a group of VVAW people had a campout in the Kettle Moraine State Forest, which is located just north of Milwaukee, over the weekend of June 1-4, 1972. Approximately 60 individuals were in attendance at this campout with several being from Illinois. Discussions took place concerning the Vietnam War and the planning of demonstrations at the upcoming Democratic and Republican Conventions to be held in Miami, Florida. All the attendees insisted that all actions were to be peaceful and non-violent.

During an appearance of GUS HALL, CPUSA Candidate for President of the United States, in the Milwaukee area on June 16, 1972, the Milwaukee VVAW Chapter exhibited a slide show concerning the Vietnam War. This affair was attended by approximately 75 people.

Milwaukee VVAW sent representatives to Miami, Florida, as part of "Operation Last Patrol." Approximately 30-40 people departed Milwaukee in six cars on August 16, 1972, en route to Miami, Florida, picking up other cars and people from other areas in the United States at designated points along the way. Individuals in the convoy arrived in Miami on August 20, 1972, and participated in various protest activities from August 20-24, 1972.

SAN DIEGO CHAPTER
SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

INTERNAL SECURITY - REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

Synopsis:

Under the leadership of "SKIP" SWALLEY, the San Diego Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) holds weekly meetings at his residence. Membership is open to veterans and non-veterans, discussions usually centering around anti-war demonstrations. The VVAW has sponsored anti-war demonstrations in San Diego and has affiliated with other groups for the same purpose. SWALLEY disavows violence for the San Diego VVAW. b7C

- P* -

DETAILS: Investigation is predicated upon receipt of information that RICHARD SWALLEY, leader of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) in San Diego, assisted by RICHARD LE CRONE and MICHAEL MC KIRDY, were seeking affiliation with the National VVAW. The VVAW shares facilities with the Pacific Counseling Service (PCS). b2 b7D

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

The PCS is a group of men and women, including ex-GI's, draft resisters, and clergy, who concentrate on building maximum support for the maximum number of anti-war GI's. The first office opened in Monterey, California, and the need for counseling has forced an expansion into six strategic locations which have helped secure conscientious objector and other kinds of discharges for over 500 GI's, and have furnished educational materials, on-base work, and leafleting for thousands more. An office of PCS has been established in Japan.

I. LEADERSHIP

RICHARD "SKIP" LEE SWALLEY, RICHARD ALLEN LE CRONE and MICHAEL BYRON KER are currently considered the leaders of VVAW Chapter at San Diego, California.

II. FACTIONAL AFFILIATION

An anti-NIXON rally was held at Morley Field, San Diego, California, on November 6, 1972, which was co-sponsored by the Student Mobilization Committee (SMC), Center for Radical Economics (CRE), Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and the VVAW. About 150 people marched from the field to NIXON headquarters.

[REDACTED] November 9, 1972)

b7D

The Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (SMC) is controlled by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and its youth affiliate, Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). SMC initiates and supports public demonstrations against the war in Southeast Asia.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

As the youth organization of the SWP, the YSA serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. The YSA is described in the masthead of its official publication, "The Young Socialist Organizer," as "A multinational revolutionary socialist youth organization."

CRE has been organized at San Diego State University and is self-described as a new, student-initiated organization which will be investigating the economic interests that the Chancellor of the California State Colleges and Universities was trying to protect when he fired PETER BOHMER, and which will also be investigating several aspects of this country's involvement in the Indochina war.

SD 100-16820

The San Diego Chapter of the VVAW is affiliated with the California State Chapter of the VVAW and appears to be nationally affiliated as they receive literature from the National Office.

III. ESTABLISHED MEMBERSHIP

The VVAW, which operates out of 827 Fifth Avenue, has a total of about 24 members, both civilian and military. One need not be a veteran to be a member of the VVAW, but must be a veteran to hold office.

[REDACTED] Current leaders are MICHAEL ALLEN LE CRONE, RICHARD "SKIP" SWALLEY, MICHAEL MC KIRDY and ALBERT "SKIP" MORGAN. There appear to be no formal titles for the leaders, and LE CRONE appears to be the overall leader, having assumed this role from "SKIP" SWALLEY.

[REDACTED] when interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on November 30, 1972, advised that he was a member of the VVAW from late 1971 until early 1972. The VVAW used to meet at 4448 Voltaire Street when he was attending their meetings. He did not agree with the political ideology of some of the members and dropped out of the VVAW.

V. PROPENSITY FOR VIOLENCE

LE CRONE and SWALLEY of the VVAW, as of this time, appear to have no propensity for violence. They state the organization itself was formed for non-violent opposition to the Vietnam War.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are copies of the Docket Sheet and Complaint in the matter of Kent State University (KSU) Chapter of VVAW, Et Al., vs. JAMES A. FYKE, Et Al., Number C72-1271, USDC, for the Northern District of Ohio, Eastern Division (Cleveland, Ohio). It does not appear that an answer to the complaint has been filed as of this date.

Also enclosed for the Bureau are two sets of newspaper articles concerning the controversy over the undercover agent of the KSU Police Department, REINHOLD MOHR. MOHR was first dismissed by the University, and then, as the Bureau will note, reinstated by (Ohio) State personnel Board, which was highly critical of MOHR's dismissal by KSU.

The civil action brought by the ACLU is both for damages and for a declaratory judgment. The argument for the declaratory judgment offers a disturbing proposition, which the Bureau may wish to refer to the Office of Legal Counsel Division. The argument is made that a police officer undercover is in violation of the Fourth Amendment right of privacy - a contention which has not been sustained in the past against paid informants, who would seem equally acting on behalf of the state.

KSU students spying for police: probers

By LYNNE WARNER

Some Kent State University students have been asked by Campus Security Department to be informants or undercover agents since President Glenn A. Olds issued his directive last spring that no students be used for surveillance work, according to a report of four members of the disbanded Campus Security Advisory Committee (CSAC).

The members submitted the report to Olds as a result of "dissatisfaction with the original committee report of June 12, 1972," which they say was an incomplete exchange of information between Olds and the CSAC.

"Evidence has been gathered that certain administrators furnished some students (and not responsible leaders from Students Government) with walkie-talkies so that they could keep the administration and police aware of the whereabouts of 'student activists.' We find this appalling and disgraceful, not unlike the neighborhood spy systems of Nazi Germany and Orwell's 1984," the report says.

The report reveals that Campus Security keeps files on political activity of students and faculty and that local clergy are included in intelligence files. It states that consolidation of intelligence files of Kent City Police and KSU Police occurred shortly after May, 1971, much earlier than CSAC and Kent City Council were led to believe.

The history of undercover agents and covert surveillance is revealed in the report, which calls former undercover agent Reinhold Mohr whose exposure led to a huge controversy at KSU and the filing of a lawsuit against Director of Security James L. Fyke, Olds and others for illegal surveillance, "the tip of an iceberg in terms of the extensive network of paid police."

The report charges that a policy of undercover infiltration has been incorporated since at least 1968 to "discredit and destroy the views and activities of certain political groups and persons."

The history begins with Margaret

Ann Murvay who revealed herself as a KSU police agent in hearings before the Committee on Internal Security of the House of Representatives on June 24 and 25, 1969. "Murvay was working for the police as early as the Oakland sit-in of November of 1968.

"Holding the position of news director for the campus radio station WKSU, Miss Murvay associated with many SDS students at Kent and talked to them, interviewed them in her capacity as a member of the radio station personnel. She would make tapes for the radio station in interviews with activists and others, and then turn copies of the tapes over to the police."

In the police department budget, Miss Murvay was listed as dispatcher, receiving $5,034 for her regular salary for 1969-1970.

The report also claims that in spring, 1969, several hundred students were led by undercover agents from Kent Hall to Music and Speech Building. The students had gathered at Kent Hall to witness conduct hearings for students involved in a sit-in protesting recruitment on campus by the Oakland Police Department.

The student undercover agents, "who had infiltrated their group and associated with them," informed the group the hearings were moved to Music and Speech and led them there. "Thereafter, the doors were locked and SDS and supporters were not permitted to leave. About five hours later, the Ohio State Patrol arrived and the arrests were made." Charges against all but a few of the 59 arrested were later dropped.

The report cites activities of several other persons believed to be undercover agents, including Charles J. Frankhouser, who was listed as an administrative specialist in the fiscal performance unit of the campus police for the 1971-1972 school year.

"He was in the possession of an expired Cleveland Press pass. Operating under the guise of a newspaper reporter and photographer, Frankhouser would supply university police and administrators with photographs of students participating in peaceful demonstrations."

At the Aug. 18 meeting of CSAC, Fyke contended that there was no photographic or covert surveillance of the commemoration services of May 4, 1972. He said that officer William Maxwell was not taking pictures at the rally, as was asserted by several attending.

"Interviews that members of this task force have had with persons attending the memorial services on the Commons contradict Fyke's assertions that Maxwell was not present and that photographic surveillance was not conducted," the report states.

The four CSAC members contend that the policy using undercover agents of both former Director of Security Donald Schwartzmiller (replaced by Fyke in January, 1971) and Fyke, is dangerous.

"The danger which this policy poses to us all is quite evident. Activists may fear for their very lives, or suspect traps are being prepared so that they might be jailed. The press ought to fear for the unethical abuse our local news services have suffered. There is great concern over the apparent manipulation of news stories broadcast or published by these services.

"With such infiltration of the news services by police agents we are fearful that not only the truth is distorted or withheld from us, but that the most basic facts, necessary to make any assessment of what the truth actually is, are being distorted and withheld."

The four CSAC members deal with their findings concerning the Mohr incident and another student informer allegedly instrumental in a late 1971 drug arrest in a separate report to Olds.

Spy files at KSU police: probers find

By LYNNE WARNER

Four members of Kent State University's Campus Security Advisory Committee (CSAC) have reported to President Glenn A. Olds that "campus police do in fact keep files on political activities."

The four members prefaced their report with the comment that "several members of this committee have displayed dissatisfaction with the original committee report of June 12, 1972," which stated that the committee did not find it to be true that campus police keep files on political activities.

The report claims that there is a "discrepancy between what Olds says and claims ought to be done and will be done, and between what (KSU Director of Security James L.) Fyke says and claims has been done and what he continues to do."

The report quotes Fyke as saying that "President Olds can't be privy to criminal matters; should not be included in operational details of surveillance activity."

The report states that also in the KSU files are the names of local ministers, "filed by name and not according to the organization or church to which they belong or to which they serve as adviser."

"Mr. Fyke attempted to explain this by saying this is simply an information file (much like the master file with the dispatcher) used for phone, address, etc. information. The point is, if Mr. Fyke needs to contact a local minister for one reason or another, why does he not list them under a professional or organizational category rather than the minister's name? ... Statements to the CSAC would indicate the possibility that clergy are included in this file because of their activities in the community."

At a later meeting of CSAC, Fyke said that clergy names are listed according to their profession, not alphabetically. "Serious questions must be asked regarding the procedure for inclusion of clergy in intelligence files. What other citizens are included in these files?" the report reads.

The report also deals with the committee's efforts to investigate and advise on what it believed to be the "proposed" consolidation of records between Kent city and KSU police.

In April, the committee planned to study plans for the proposed consolidation. At that time, according to the report, Fyke told a subcommittee of CSAC that "none of the file folders were exchanged and consolidated with other police agencies."

The file folders kept by the security department contain "raw data" and Fyke keeps an index card which corresponds with each intelligence file. The cards contain the name, a code which identifies the nature of the offense and other data.

A memo dated Aug. 3 from Committee Chairman Earle Roberts to Olds said "The committee is very concerned over the proposed consolidation of records as it pertains to campus security intelligence files. The committee strongly recommends that intelligence files not be physically moved or consolidated with the Kent police files for a minimum of two weeks to allow the committee to study the impact of such a move."

However, at a meeting of the CSAC Aug. 18, "Fyke said that the index card file began about May, 1971, and consolidation of such index cards with the Ohio State Patrol and Kent City Police occurred shortly thereafter."

The report states that at the Aug. 13 meeting "Fyke totally reversed his previous statements. First, he said that folders too were sometimes consolidated."

"Then, later he said that at least 90 per cent of his intelligence data had been consolidated. The first records that were consolidated between city and campus police were the intelligence files (including data, not just index cards). 'They were of first priority,' said Fyke."

With regard to the cooperation of the two Kent police departments in drug investigations and campus disruptions, most cases are joint cases, the report states.

Information had been exchanged on a weekly or bi-weekly basis at joint meetings of local police departments, National Guard and others.

The report concluded that "Mr. Fyke misled the subcommittee and the CSAC (and apparently the Kent City Council) to believe that intelligence files and the information contained therein had not been consolidated. However, we find that this consolidation has already occurred — that it is not a plan for the future, but is instead a fact of the past."

A subcommittee of CSAC was charged with the task of reviewing the records and record systems of the campus police "Because of the sensitive nature and the raw data in the files," the subcommittee agreed to view only the index cards.

"In doing this, the subcommittee became incapable of adequately fulfilling its charge of determining what information is gathered. As a matter of fact, viewing only the index cards and thus learning the names of some who are included in this data-gathering and data-filing system, was contrary to the directives given the committee," the report says.

The subcommittee found that the intelligence files plus index cards system has been in operation for slightly less than a year and has 3,000 cards, some dating back five years. "The range of campus folk included, both student and faculty, appeared to be rather broad and the maintenance of the system appeared rather poor, etc., many of the records were without offense identifying codes."

"Criterion for inclusion in the files are: an arrestee or suspect with possible arrest imminent for the following offenses: narcotics, violent activity (revolutionary), gambling, prostitution; names submitted by other departments; person who is a continuing source of information; victim; sex-related crimes; pornography.

"In view of some of the names included, criterion is not closely adhered to," the subcommittee report states.

The files appeared to the subcommittee to consist of principally raw data including newspaper clippings, pictures and data from surveillance at rallies. Any law enforcement agency has access to this "largely unverified" information. "The chief was not clear as to whether or not he had power to periodically purge these files."

The subcommittee also reported that the Ravenna chief of police "is concerned about the close relationship between the City of Kent and the campus security. He opposes movement towards a countywide communications system and any other joint effort because of concern about losing his autonomy. The chief suggested that campus security get out of the police business and permit the City of Kent to assume this function."

Portage County Sheriff Joseph Hegedus, the report states, recommended that campus security retain its police functions because to change would place other agencies under a great deal of pressure, plus "the culture of the university is such that it needs to police its own. The sheriff has felt the need to increase its campus surveillance since the reduction of campus security's efforts in this area."

Several federal agencies operate on KSU's campus from time to time, "often without knowledge of campus security. They range from the Secret Service, when threatening language has been used toward the president, to Internal Revenue when bogus money is circulated. The most active are the FBI and the Treasury Dept. (drug traffic). Army Intelligence investigates when there is an ROTC problem."

The subcommittee recommended that campus security's policy of transmittal, both formal and informal, to other agencies, be reviewed, and that the department initiate steps to purge files of those who have not committed a crime nor are likely to commit one. Only 15 of the 3,000 files are active.

Names and groups included in the index cards are reported to be Prof. Jerry Lewis, adviser of SDS and Vietnam Veterans Against the War; Ken Johnson, former president of VVAW; Kent Gay Liberation Front and Black United Students.

The report also revealed that campus police conduct all background investigations for the university civil service employment. "What is the relationship between the personnel and the police departments, especially in terms of file-keeping and file-sharing?"

The report was submitted to Olds by four student members — Thomas Anderson, Tobie Fixler, Alan Morris and Michael White — after the committee disbanded last week.

Dissension torn KSU spy probers disband

By LYNNE WARNER

Kent State University's Campus Security Advisory Committee has disbanded following internal charges and countercharges of "conflict of interests."

The five student members of the committee, none of whom voted to disband, told KSU President Glenn A. Olds that they favor continuance of the committee, but feel that the committee did not fulfill the charges given to it by the president when he created it 10 months ago — to investigate and advise him on policies of the Campus Security Department.

"We see this failure as a result of lack of direction given to the committee by its chairperson and members of the committee. Most importantly, the lack of direction was obstructed by the Director of Security, James Fyke. By contradicting himself a number of times before the committee and refusing to give the committee much needed information, he made it impossible to set up any type of trusting or helpful relationship with the security force," the students told Olds in a letter.

The students charged that Fyke "was able to obstruct the committee's action when he gave a false impression that the reason he would not appear on the Campus Security Advisory Committee was that Alan Morris, a plaintiff in a suit against members of the security force, was a student member of the committee."

Morris offered to leave the committee meeting or resign from the committee, but when Fyke was contacted to see if he would appear before the committee in Morris' absence, "the director changed his story and said he would never appear before our committee as long as this lawsuit was pending. Although it was apparent that Alan Morris' membership on the committee was not responsible for Fyke's non-communication with the committee, several members chose to dwell on this issue," the students said.

Fyke said in a letter: "any discussion of matters which would or could prejudice my defense in the lawsuit brought against me by a member of the committee cannot be discussed, thus my comments with the committee necessarily must be restricted to subjects of a more mundane nature."

Morris was charged with conflict of interest and he countercharged that certain faculty members on the committee may also have conflicting interests. The student members contend that the charges led to lack of trust of student members' motives and feelings that some faculty members may have interests that conflicted with an objective analysis of the security force and its director. The alleged interests cannot be discussed at this time, the students said.

At that meeting, committee member George Eastman, director of KSU's Center for State and Local Government and professor of political science, moved that the committee disband. The motion was tabled.

"During this time the students were concerned that no constructive work was being done while the committee was quibbling over issues Mr. Fyke had created, such as confidentiality and conflict of interests. We issued a report to the committee concerning campus security policies and operations. This report was distributed to the members on Friday, Nov. 17, and was to be discussed the following Wednesday," the student members

ACLU sues Kent over surveillance

The American Civil Liberties Union filed a $280,000 lawsuit in Federal Court here today against Kent State University officials, including security chief James A. Fyke and campus undercover agent Reinhold Mohr.

The suit was filed on behalf of members of the Kent State Vietnam Veterans Against War.

At a news conference here the ACLU said the action was aimed at halting a pattern and practice of unlawful surveillance by university officials, by infiltrating and monitoring law-abiding groups in the campus area, interfering with rights of privacy and trying to provoke unlawful acts.

The suit accuses Fyke and Mohr of setting up a scheme to discredit the plaintiffs and expose them to criminal prosecution by planting unlawful weapons in their possession.

The alleged plot fell through last spring and Mohr was fired by the university on charges that he tried to provoke students into blowing up Rockwell Hall on Apr. 12. The State Personnel Board of Review ordered him reinstated, however.

Besides the $280,000 compensatory damages, the suit also asks for an unspecified amount in punitive damages.

Firing for political spying at KSU: Olds

By LYNNE WARNER

Kent State University President Glenn A. Olds promised students Wednesday that if he finds his directive forbidding political surveillance is not being carried out he will fire those responsible for the surveillance.

Asked by a student during the first of his monthly open forums what action would be taken should he find that files and photographs are kept by the KSU Security Department for purposes of political surveillance, Olds answered "I would take direct action and fire the persons involved."

Olds said that his directives of fall, 1971, and the more comprehensive regulations he established in the spring after a study by his Campus Security Advisory Committee, clearly state that no political surveillance is to take place on the campus. "The university has no business being involved in this. It was not until the Mohr case emerged that I was mindful that this was not so."

"Since then I've taken steps to ensure that my directives are carried out." He added that he has met several times with Director of Security James L. Fyke and is convinced that there are no records kept "that could be remotely described as political surveillance of individuals or groups."

"I personally checked the files yesterday. There are no files kept on rallies. I've taken steps to ensure that Mr. Fyke and all his officers understand my policy and to make sure no gap exists between my directives and anyone involved in campus security."

The president said that the security department does have photographic equipment in case violence occurs on campus so that proper identification can be made of those who violate the law.

One student claimed that a list of names was drawn so that certain persons would be arrested during demonstrations.

Olds replied "That is exactly why I insisted that cameras and witnesses be present," so it could be proven whether accused persons actually violated laws.

Figures obtained from the Portage County auditor's office on the budget of the Portage County Sheriff's Department were presented by a student. "Their budget is $411,000 for one year and they're responsible for the 125,000 people in this country. It amazes me that on campus an $800,000 budget is warranted, plus grants," the student said.

Olds said that business files of the security department are public and available in the office of the vice president for business, but certain files on criminal activity, which are the only files kept by the department, must be kept secret for security reasons.

Students suggested that the budget of the security department should be cut rather than other parts of the budget. Olds replied that for many years the department has been organized so that certain personnel "respond to immediate security problems. There are also those who back them up to avert and detect those who break the law. Detection is not simple or easy. This has been part of the budget for a long time. Whether as much as is now being spent is warranted is part of the reason I appointed the committee."

Other than campus surveillance, most of the discussion centered around the budget crisis that would result from repeal of the state income tax. Olds said that he would not reduce enrollment if the tax is retained but that he does "favor selective admission to improve the quality of programs and students."

A student questioned the logic of eliminating faculty rather than administrators and staff during a university budget crunch. Olds said that seven per cent of the instructional budget goes for academic administrators, including deans and assistant deans.

"I have urged the faculty to determine if this is intrinsic to the academic functions of the university."

Concerning elimination of staff, Olds said he favors more student involvement in upkeep and maintenance, but union contracts with Civil Service employees obligates the university to retain these employees. He said that nine per cent of the budget is spent on maintenance of grounds and buildings, as compared to a 17 to 20 per cent national average, but added that "we must find ways of reducing non-instructional costs."

Surveillance at KSU is protested

By LYNNE WARNER

The issue of alleged campus surveillance is coming to a head at Kent State University following the reinstatement of former KSU undercover agent Reinhold Mohr by the State Personnel Board of Review.

That is the consensus of about 90 students who discussed the Mohr case Thursday night sponsored by KSU Student Senate.

Atty. Howard Allison, who was a member of a panel discussing the issue with students, said, "This issue should bother people, not because Reinhold Mohr was running around with a grenade launcher and machine gun and telling people to blow up Rockwell Hall. What should upset people is that he was hired to do it. He was getting $900 a month plus free tuition and books.

"Mohr was a soldier following orders. He was acting within the authority given to him by superiors. So he's not the one that should be fired. It's the ones who told him to do what he did that should have been fired."

"This thing is organized. What upsets me most is that they call this organization a division to investigate organized crime on campus, prostitution, gambling and subversive activities. I've never seen a case of any of these. So they must have wiped them out.

"Or else they can't justify a $1 million budget by saying it's going for a bunch of cops handing out parking tickets. They can justify the budget by saying there's thievery and prostitution and destructive groups on campus that need watching," Allison said.

He said that at one time the security department had a $1 million budget, but it is now cut to about $600,000.

Alan Morris, vice-president of Vietnam Veterans Against the War who was involved in the exposure of Mohr, said "Reinhold Mohr is not what this thing is all about. It goes to the top of the security department. Chief James L. Fyke (KSU director of security) and Robert Winkler (commander of special investigations division) said they authorized Mohr to carry those weapons to enhance his image.

"Policemen in the security department tipped us off about Mohr. What's going on when men within the department find the need to tip off campus groups?"

"It's significant that President Olds didn't know what his chief of police was doing," said Student Body Vice-president Karen Czujko.

Allison called the KSU Security Department an "autonomous organization," saying that it "takes orders from nobody." He said that he believes KSU President Glenn A. Olds' claim that he was not aware of surveillance activities at the time Mohr was exposed as a KSU undercover agent in the spring.

Allison said that the KSU Security Department has electronic equipment for surveillance. Rev. Michael White, a member of the Campus Security Advisory Board, said that the KSU Security Department has access to files and photographs of students, faculty and organizations including Black United Students and Gay Liberation.

Miss Czujko said "It is a consensus of those present that the real issue is undercover campus surveillance. The Reinhold Mohr case has raised questions about this type of activity at an educational institution. It is repressive in nature and stifles dissent and involvement in affairs that students are interested in.

"What we must do is help bring the issue to a head. We must take action to remove persons involved in this type of activity from the campus."

Court action will be taken, Allison said. An injunction will be requested by American Civil Liberties Union to stop heads of the security department from organizing "illegal surveillance activities."

Students at the meeting also planned demo rap sessions and other activities to inform students of surveillance activities. They also plan to meet with Olds to discuss the issue with him and urge him to take action on the issue.

KSU senate rejects Mohr reinstatement

Kent State University Student Senate has condemned the State Personnel Board of Review's reinstatement of former KSU undercover agent Reinhold Mohr.

Student Senate passed a resolution condemning the board's decision and establishing an ad hoc committee "to inform the student body and others of the circumstances of Mohr's activities."

A public meeting will be held by the ad hoc committee Thursday at 8 p.m. in room 110, Williams Hall, KSU. Alan Morris, a member of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War who was involved in bringing about Mohr's dismissal last spring, and Mike White, a member of Student Senate's campus security advisory committee, will speak at the meeting.

Fyke explains role in KSU cop firing

James L. Fyke, director of security at Kent State University, Tuesday afternoon issued a statement concerning his role in the dismissal of Elmer K. Leeper Jr. from KSU security force on July 24.

Leeper was reinstated to the force last Friday by the state Personnel Board of Review. The board criticized Fyke who forwarded his recommendations for Leeper's dismissal to the KSU Director for non-academic personnel, for investigation of Leeper's conduct.

Fyke's statement:

"Certain statements appearing in the Record-Courier on Oct. 16, 1972, were incorrect and misleading. The statement was made that James L. Fyke was the appointing authority and the official who issued the order of removal. Both are in error in that the appointing authority, under provisions of the Ohio Revised Code, is the director of non-academic personnel. Only the appointing authority may remove, suspend or demote a civil service employee. It therefore becomes apparent that the comments made about the "appointing authority" by the board did not refer to this department and its members. Departmental officials throughout the campus may recommend action, but have no direct authority to implement any civil service action.

"We are, however, confused by the decision in light of one statement made by the board concerning the allegations of the removal order: "turning now to the evidence presented before this board in support of these most serious charges, the board must first commend the counsel for the appointing authority for his efforts to illicit admissions from the appellant upon cross examination. By following this good trial tactic, counsel was able to illicit from the appellant an admission of literally every pertinent allegation of the removal order." Nonetheless, the department recognizes the good faith of the board and has promptly moved to execute the order of reinstatement."

KSU prexy 'shocked' over Mohr hearing

Kent State University President Glenn A. Olds has made this statement about Thursday's reinstatement of former KSU undercover agent Reinhold Mohr by the State Personnel Board of Review:

"The order to reinstate Mr. Reinhold Mohr by the State Personnel Board of Review will of course be honored by the university. The Appeal Board was designed as an objective third party review for just such occasions as this, when charges and countercharges, under sworn testimony conflict, and the rights of those involved questioned are in jeopardy.

"You will understand the shock, therefore, of the university at the editorial manner in which the Board dealt with this request. To compare a situation in which charges of intent to incite, to destroy property and life with a "grade B movie"; the counsel of the Attorney General of Ohio on whose advice the university acted, as "buck passing" and/or "appeasement," to assess credibility of testimony on "demeanor" and "tone of voice"; and to take 5½ months rather than the 30 days generally prescribed for such hearings, with the attendant problems for Mr. Mohr for whose rights they have expressed such concern, strikes the university as placing the shoe on the wrong foot. Nor has the university been able to determine, why all six students whose sworn testimony provoked the suspension were not properly subpoenaed to appear before the Board.

"It is common practice, when conflict in rights, interest or testimony is present, in matters described by the Appeal Board as "so serious they would well justify instant dismissal," and where testimony is provided under oath and thereby subject to charges of perjury, to move adjudication out of the emotionally charged arena of action for dispassionate review. The action of the University was justified. It was not designed to appease anyone. Nor does it seem necessary to apologize for action designed to avert violence, protect the rights of patrolman Mohr, and insure a legal base for testimony of the accusers. As indicated then and now, the university is not designed to be a legal judge, jury and sentencer in the area of civil service employees. Appeal Boards are for that purpose. One would hope for the future, its appropriate function would be to weigh the evidence and testimony impartially; and not publicly chastise persons or institutions for doing what they are enjoined to do by law, and the civil service which supports them both."

KSU officials hit for 'appeasement'

State board upholds Mohr

By ROBERT DRUMHELLER
R-C Columbus Bureau

COLUMBUS — The State Personnel Board of Review Thursday reinstated former Kent State University Undercover agent Rheinhold Mohr, 25, to the university's police force and exonerated him of charges by KSU officials that he advocated "killing pigs" and destroying Rockwell Hall.

The university can now appeal the board's decision to the Portage County Common Pleas Court. Mohr can recover lost wages, which amount to about $3,200 through the courts.

In an ten - page written decision, board members Earl W. Allison and Frank E. Avren found that Mohr's dismissal was "an attempt to appease certain elements of the campus community and lower their vociferous protestations."

Circumstances surrounding Mohr's case, they wrote, involved "enough plots and counter-plots, espionage and counter - espionage and 'good guys' being the bad guys' and 'bad guys' being the good guys' to make several Grade B movies or television series, or at least a paperback novel."

The board severely criticized the university officials for not expediting a hearing for Mohr. "Probably the most disturbing aspect of this case is the fact that a police officer . . . must wait for a hearing before this board in order to clear himself of accusations which had no merit whatsoever, and . . . had to undergo a removal from his position, public embarrassment, and financial loss."

The board commended Security Director James L. Fyke for not recommending Mohr's dismissal.

The board also stated that although the university attempted to appease campus groups, "appeasement only leads the way to more excessive demands and greater confrontation."

"When such appeasement results in a clear - cut violation of the Civil Service laws and the rights of an individual, this board must bring it to a quick halt."

Mohr was detained by Kent city police on April 24 for possession of illegal weapons — one a Russian - made AK-47 automatic rifle — last May. Although charges were later dropped after Fyke identified Mohr as a university policeman and federal officials termed the weapons "inoperable" and legal, Mohr was dismissed.

Board members pointed out that the charges "are so serious that they would justify instant dismissal from his position." But, they continued, the evidence rebutting the charges "is such that many persons must surely wonder why these charges were ever filed in the first place."

The review board summarily dismissed testimony by three witnesses who testified that Mohr offered to sell weapons and advocated violence.

During the hearing on Mohr's appeal this month, Thomas Grace and Greg Hawthorne — who were roommates while students at Kent State — and Jeffrey Beutler offered testimony that on March 7 Mohr advocated "killing pigs (policemen)."

However, Allison and Avren wrote that because the three witnesses found out that Mohr had them under surveillance, "there is no doubt that at least the basis for bias and prejudice in their testimony was present."

The board also discounted testimony by Grace, Hawthorne and Beutler because "it was the manner of speaking and the tone of voice rather than the content of the answer which detracted from the credibility of the witnesses."

Furthermore, the witnesses were discredited by the board because "it was obvious from the overall testimony that the three accusers were opposed to police surveillance."

"One of the direct results of their accusations against (Mohr) and his removal was to completely end the undercover surveillance at Kent State University."

REINHOLD MOHR

The board's decision also pointed out that Mohr was given "a great deal of discretion" in his activities by his superiors. Mohr was hired by KSU as a member of the "mod squad" students who checked university building security in the evenings. Later he was hired by former Police Chief Donald L. Schwartzmiller as an undercover agent assigned to report on campus "activists."

"In this assignment," the decision states, "Mohr had the full confidence of superiors and was given wide latitude as to his working hours, his activities in associating with students and student groups, and the techniques which he could use to gain the confidence of students under surveillance."

"Mohr's activities," it was pointed out, "were known by Schwartzmiller, Security Director Fyke and Special Investigation Commander Robert Winkler."

The board found that "there is no evidence that he either committed or participated in the commission of any act of violence against either persons or property which would have been outside the scope of that authority."

According to the board, Mohr never offered weapons for sale as Beutler had testified. "We need not test the credibility of Beutler because his testimony related only to the sale of the weapons, which we have already struck down as being an invalid charge."

On another point, the board found that Mohr had been "set up" when detained by Kent City Police. "We imagine the unwitting Kent City Police officers were somewhat chagrined when Security Director Fyke was called and had to save his officer from false arrest charges by exposing his true identity as an undercover agent."

That "chagrin" the board wrote, "was probably mild compared to that of the accusers and plotters of the arrest when they learned all criminal charges against 'fink' had been dropped."

Apparently, the decision stated, this led to Grace, Hawthorne and Beutler filing affidavits concerning Mohr's dismissal.

Board members questioned why the three did not go to university or police officials at the time of the incident. It was two months after the March 7 incident, when Mohr allegedly offered weapons for sale and advocated "killing pigs," that "they told their version to the proper authorities," according to the board.

The board also was "shocked" to hear evidence that one of the uses of undercover officers was to check on prostitution on the campus, which admittedly exists.

Investigator Winkler had earlier confirmed this at the October hearing.

ACLU: Will Sue In KSU Mohr Case

By JOHN DUNPHY
Beacon Journal Staff Writer

KENT — The Ohio American Civil Liberties Union said Friday it will file suit in Federal court against Kent State University officials in the wake of the State Board of Personnel Review ruling to reinstate former campus undercover agent Reinhold "Ron" Mohr.

Leonard Schwartz, ACLU staff counsel, said the suit will be filed within the next two weeks charging KSU Police Chief James L. Fyke and others with "illegal surveillance and attempted entrapment."

MOHR, 25, was fired by the university May 6 after six students presented affidavits charging he tried to provoke students to violence last March 7, and tried to get students to blow up Rockwell Hall April 12.

The Board exonerated Mohr of all charges and ordered he reinstated with back pay totaling $3,600.

The Board's ruling was highly critical of KSU President Glenn A. Olds and discounted the credibility of three students who appeared to testify at Mohr's hearing Oct. 4.

The three were Thomas Grace, a former student and one of nine wounded by National Guard gunfire May 4, 1970; Greg Hawthorne and Jeffery Beutler, student activists associated with the KSU Vietnam Veterans Against the War, which was primarily responsible for Mohr's arrest.

IN DISCOUNTING the students' testimony the Board said:

"The first thing to be remembered is that each of these young men was one of the persons the appellant had under surveillance."

"Secondly, the sitting members of the Board were not favorably impressed by the demeanor of these three witnesses on the stand. In several instances, it was the manner of speaking and the tone of voice rather than the content of the answer which detracted from their credibility."

"Thirdly, it was obvious from the overall testimony that the three accusers were opposed to police surveillance. The Board concludes that they had a very direct interest in the outcome of the matter."

Olds has yet to comment on the Board ruling which accused him of "an attempt to appease certain elements of the campus community and lower their vociferous protestations."

MOHR was arrested by Kent City Police (unaware of his undercover role) for possession of illegal weapons, which included a Russian AK-47 automatic rifle and a Chinese rocket launcher.

The veterans group admitted setting up Mohr for the arrest because they believed he was dangerous.

Charges were dropped against Mohr the next day, after Federal agents ruled the weapons inoperable.

Olds fired Mohr, saying: "The university is not equipped to provide a dispassionate atmosphere in which a formal hearing may be held to protect the substantive and procedural rights of both Mr. Mohr and his accusers."

ASSISTANT Atty. Gen. Eric Gilbertson, who represented Kent State at the hearing, said "the university and Dr. Olds were unjustly criticized in the report."

"I don't believe the Board expected us to hold a kangaroo court trial on the campus for Mr. Mohr. The University isn't equipped to handle a hearing of this type. I believe Dr. Olds did the right thing at the time."

"THERE were some serious charges made by the six students and I don't think he (Olds) could ignore them — saying in effect the students were lying. It was necessary for Mohr to be fired so the Board could hear the case. Dr. Olds' position was to get Mr. Mohr a fair and impartial hearing," Gilbertson said.

He added that the university is not likely to appeal the decision.

Fyke said he was pleased with the ruling. He said Mohr would not be reinstated as an undercover agent, but would work in some other capacity for the KSU police.

KEN JOHNSON, former student and president of the veterans group last April, said he was irritated that no one tried to reach him to testify.

Johnson was one of three students subpoenaed who failed to appear at the hearing.

Johnson claims the University had his address in Ashtabula, but never attempted to contact him.

The subpoena, it was learned, was mailed to the wrong address in Kent.

Johnson said he was "absolutely amazed they could reinstate this character."

"The Vietnam Vets Against the War are not going to let the thing settle down," he added.

IN ITS ruling the Board said the case had enough plots and counter-plots to make several Grade B movies, but concluded:

"Probably the most disturbing aspect of this case is the fact that a police officer, hired and paid by the University to enforce the law and who was apparently performing his duties properly must wait for a hearing before this Board in order to clear himself of accusations which had no merit whatsoever . . . and had to undergo removal from his position, public embarrassment and financial loss. .

"It is to the credit of Mr. Fyke that he did not recommend this removal."

The decision was signed by members Earl W. Allison and Frank E. Avren, both Republicans. Board Chairman James E. Hugel, a Democrat, was absent.

Undercover Agent: Didn't Encourage Violence

By RONALD D. CLARK

Beacon Journal Columbus Bureau

COLUMBUS — Three former Kent State University students sought to portray one-time university undercover agent Reinhold Mohr Wednesday as a man who encouraged violence at Kent.

But Mohr, 25, who is seeking reinstatement to his job on the university police force denied the charges.

Moreover, Mohr's superiors on the force praised his performance and said he always provided "reliable" information.

KSU Police Chief James L. Fyke even acknowledged he had not recommended Mohr be dismissed.

THE modish Mohr listened intently as his behavior was discussed during a four-hour hearing before the State Personnel Board of Review.

The board's decision is expected within two weeks.

KSU officials were attempting to justify their firing of Mohr last May 6 on charges of malfeasance. Mohr was dismissed after six students submitted affidavits against him alleging improper behavior.

Three of the students detailed their charges at the hearing. Two others were subpoenaed but did not appear, while the third declined to appear because a warrant for his arrest is outstanding.

Failing to answer subpoenas were Kenneth Johnson, Norman Caulfield and Michael Brock. Brock faces misdemeanor charges in connection with an alleged flag desecration incident. If he returns, to Ohio from his home in Buffalo.

TWO of the witnesses told essentially the same stories. They were Thomas M. Grace, an unemployed June KSU graduate now living in Syra-Reinhold Mohr case, and Gregory Hawthorne, now a coal miner. They shared an apartment in Kent.

They testified that in early March, Mohr brought a Chinese "machine gun" to their apartment. Grace said Mohr "made the statement he thought this would be a good weapon to kill pigs with."

On April 12, they said Mohr visited the apartment again and suggested during a discussion that, as Hawthorne said, "to raise the consciousness of the campus as to why ROTC is a bad thing to have, it might be helpful to blow up the ROTC building."

Hawthorne also said Mohr suggested explosives could be obtained from coal fields and he pointed out Hawthorne would know where to get them.

THE THIRD former student, Jeffrey W. Beutler, said several times between January and April, Mohr offered to sell him unregistered weapons.

On another occasion at Beutler's house, Beutler recalled Mohr saying that the only way "we could stop the harassment and repression was to off a pig or two."

"Off a pig" means to kill a policeman.

UNDER questioning by his lawyer, Perry Dickinson of Ravenna, Mohr denied all the charges.

He said he took the Chinese gun to Grace's apartment to try to "strike up a conversation to get useful information" about illegal weapons on campus. The weapon was not offered to anyone to kill "pigs," he added.

Mohr insisted the gun was inoperable, was only a souvenir and he had received permission from his superiors to use it in his work "to enhance my image."

Mohr was fired after his arrest April 24 by Kent Police for possessing illegal weapons — including the Chinese machine gun. No charges were filed after Federal agents said the weapon was inoperable.

Kent Police acted on a tip from students Kenneth Johnson and Allen Morris. They charged Mohr had infiltrated their group — Vietnam Veterans Against the War — and was trying to set them up for arrest.

Mohr denies weapons sale attempt in Kent

By ROBERT J. DRUMHELLER

COLUMBUS — The State Personnel Board of Review Wednesday heard ex-Kent State University undercover agent Reinhold Mohr deny that he offered to sell university activists illegal weapons or that he suggested "killing pigs."

Mohr is appealing his removal from the Kent State University police force, where he was discharged May 8 after Kent City Police arrested him for possession of illegal firearms. He was released, however, after federal officials termed the weapons — one a Russian-made AK-47 automatic rifle — "inoperable."

The decision, which could cost the university more than $3,200 in back pay to Mohr, is expected from the board in about two weeks.

Two of the three board members heard Mohr categorically deny charges by three witnesses that he had ever offered the weapon for sale or that he ever suggested radical campus groups "off pigs (kill police)."

Mohr further denied that he had ever suggested destroying Rockwell Hall (ROTC building) with explosives. He said the witnesses, who associated with Mohr during the period "were lying."

Mohr, however, did admit that he used a weapon to obtain information from radical leaders while an undercover agent. He added that his superiors "instructed me to use them to enhance my position."

This was confirmed by Mohr's immediate superiors, University Security Director James L. Fyke and Investigation Section Head Robert F. Winkler.

Winkler said, "We knew he had the weapon." He explained that he then told Fyke, who agreed that "we weren't going to worry about it."

Winkler added that "we advised him that he could use them to enhance his position with his contacts."

But at least one witness said Mohr did offer to sell him a weapon.

Jeffrey W. Beutler, a former KSU student activist, said Mohr attempted to sell him a German made 9 mm Walthus pistol. Beutler also testified that when he visited Mohr's apartment, the undercover agent showed him the AK-47 rifle and RPG rocket launcher.

Beutler quoted Mohr as saying "now I'm ready for the revolution."

Beutler further contended that Mohr asked him "where he could get a gun fixed." He said, "I referred him to the best I know."

Another witness, Gregory Hawthorne, also a former Kent State student activist, testified that when Mohr first showed him the automatic rifle, Mohr said, "It's nice to kill pigs with."

Hawthorne also contended that Mohr, on April 12, said to "raise the consciousness of the people about the Vietnam war, it would be nice to blow up the ROTC building."

Hawthorne's testimony was reiterated by Thomas M. Grace, another KSU graduate. Grace testified that Mohr suggested "killing pigs" and "dynamiting the ROTC building."

According to the university's former security director, Donald Schwartzmiller, Mohr began working for the police department in May, 1970. Mohr, however, was assigned to KSU's "mod squad," a group of students charged with securing buildings in evenings.

Later Mohr "was assigned to keep me informed of the movement of people termed a threat to the security of KSU," Schwartzmiller said.

"His job was to attend demonstrations and meetings," he said.

Schwartzmiller, however, testified that he did not authorize Mohr to sell weapons or "advocate violence."

Eric R. Gilbertson, assistant Ohio Attorney General assigned to represent Ohio's state universities, argued that Mohr "came to them (the witnesses) with weapons to use for illegal purposes. He contended KSU authorities acted correctly in discharging Mohr."

But Mohr's attorney Perry Dickinson, stated that his client "did what he was paid for. He got set up and was arrested."

Mohr hearing slated to begin Thursday

By JACKIE SETON

A hearing has been set for 9 a.m. Thursday on the appeal filed in Common Pleas June 28 by Reinhold Mohr, the 25-year-old undercover agent suspended from the KSU Police Department on a malfeasance charge this spring.

Portage County Common Pleas Judge Albert L. Caris will hear the case.

Mohr is seeking reinstatement to his post with the Kent State University Police Department.

The ex-agent was suspended May 8 after a probe into charges that he encouraged Vietnam Veterans against the War to use violence.

Mohr was arrested by Kent Police April 24 on a possession of firearms charge. KSU students called him an "agent provocateur."

He was cleared of the charge but suspended from the security force in May.

Mohr appealed the suspension May 15 to the Ohio Personnel Board. The board, however, failed to set a hearing on the matter until July 12, after the 30-day time limit set by state statutes.

Mohr is now asking Judge Caris to order his reinstatement on the grounds that state officials failed to comply with state statutes in not setting the hearing within the prescribed time.

Also set for Common Pleas Tuesday is a hearing on a request for a temporary injunction which would force operators of a Kent golf course to do away with a driving range.

The suit was filed June 27 by Franklin Twp. Zoning Inspector David R. Wilson who charges that owners of the Oak Knolls Golf Course, 6700 S.R. 43, Kent, is in violation of township zoning codes.

Wilson contends that the golf course set up a driving range and installed flood lights, both of which are prohibited by a Nov. 25, 1969 zoning amendment.

He wants the court to issue a mandatory injunction ordering course owners to remove the lights and discontinue operation of the driving range.

That case has been set for 9 a.m. tomorrow.

A court trial involving a Kent woman and car dealer Don Joseph, Inc., is scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. Wednesday in Judge Caris' courtroom.

The woman, Linda D. Holmes of 166 W. Main St., charges that she purchased a 1967 Plymouth from the car dealer in October, 1968, and learned when she ran into car problems that she had no warranty on the vehicle.

Russ prof, ex-KSU officer sue to get reinstated in jobs

Reinhold Mohr, the 25-year-old former Kent State University undercover Agent who was suspended from the force on May 8 for "malfeasance in office" has asked the Portage County Common Pleas Court to reinstate him because he was "denied the required hearing" before the State Personnel Board of Review.

In another action filed by former KSU employe Wednesday, Arthur E. Janke, 331 Starr Line Drive, Tallmadge, is asking the court to reappoint him as a Russian instructor.

The Mohr appeal was filed by Ravenna Atty. Perry Dickinson with the Ohio Dept. of State Personnel named as appellee. Representing Janke, who taught Russian at Kent from 1967 until his contract was not renewed for the 1972-73 school year last November is represented by another Ravenna lawyer, J. Phillip Jones. Janke names the KSU board of Trustees and President Glenn Olds as defendants.

Dickinson charged the state review board failed to comply with Ohio law which says an employe has 10 days to file an appeal following his dismissal or suspension and that the board of review has to set a hearing within 30 days of receiving the appeal notice.

Dickinson said he received a notice from the review board Wednesday saying a hearing has been set for 1:30 p.m. July 12 in Columbus. The brief also contained a copy of the Mohr's appeal filed within the 10 day period and nearly two months before the proposed hearing date.

Mohr's removal order, signed by Paul W. Mosher, director of non-academic personnel at KSU, charged Mohr "provoked" several students into violence on March 7, 1972 "by offering them unlawful weapons" and again on April 12 he is charged with provoking some of those same students "to destroy with explosives" Rockwell Hall.

The suit asks the court to reinstate Mohr effective May 8.

KSU aide arrested with two weapons

Press State Service

KENT — A man arrested here with a machine gun and grenade launcher and accused of attempting to give them to a Kent State University anti-war organization was identified today as an undercover agent for the KSU Security Police.

Kathy Condon of the KSU Information Service said Reinhold Mohr, 25, who was arrested after two officers of the Kent Veterans Against the War supplied police with information, had been a member of the security police force for about two years.

POLICE SAID Mohr had a Russian made AK-47 machine gun and a Chinese made RPG — a rocket propelled grenade launcher, in his possession as he was leaving his apartment.

The KSU administration said in a statement that Mohr told police the guns were "inoperative."

"Mohr said he bought the weapons locally within the last two months and they are inoperative," the statement said. Police said they arrested Mohr on a tip he would be carrying the guns.

"MOHR HAS BEEN a member of the campus security force for two years and is a former member of the 'Mod Squad' (a section of the undercover force)," said the statement. "For the past year he has been working for the special investigation division, working on narcotics and illegal organized activities...."

"The federal authorities will determine if the weapons are illegal and in violation of federal statutes," the statement said. "Mohr will remain in jail pending the outcome of the investigation."

Mohr was charged with illegal possession of firearms.

Civil Action

No.

COMPLAINT
(Class Action)

C72-1271

Plaintiffs, by their attorneys, allege as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. The jurisdiction of this Court is based upon Title 28, United States Code, sections 1331 and 1343; Title 42, United States Code, section 1983; and the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims arising under state law pursuant to the doctrine of pendent jurisdiction.

Plaintiffs seek damages from defendants in their individual capacities for deprivation of their constitutional rights, a declaratory judgment pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, sections 2201 and 2202, and a preliminary and permanent injunction restraining the defendants from engaging in the future in the acts complained of in this Complaint. The amount in controversy exceeds $10,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiffs are as follows:

(a) Kent State University Chapter of Vietnam Veterans Against the War (referred to hereafter as "Kent V.V.A.W."), an unincorporated association of former servicemen many of whom served in the Vietnam War and who engage in various kinds of lawful and peaceful political activity aimed primarily at ending the Vietnam War and militarism in American society. Pursuant to Rule 17(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure it may sue to enforce a right existing under the Constitution and laws of the United States:

(b) Kenneth Johnson, a Kent State University student during the period in issue, a Vietnam War Veteran and a member of Kent V.V.A.W.:

(c) Alan Morris, a Kent State University student during the period in issue, a Vietnam War Veteran and a member of Kent V.V.A.W.:

(d) Thomas Grace, a Kent State University student during the period in issue, and a member of the Joe Hill Collective of Students for a Democratic Society;

(e) Gregory Hawthorne, a Kent State University student during the period in question, and a member of the Joe Hill Collective of Students for a Democratic Society;

(f) Jeffrey Beutler, a Kent State University student during the period in question, a veteran and a member of Kent V.V.A.W. and the Joe Hill Collective of Students for a

Democratic Society;

(g) Michael White, a Kent State University student during the period in question who was active in peace-oriented political action groups.

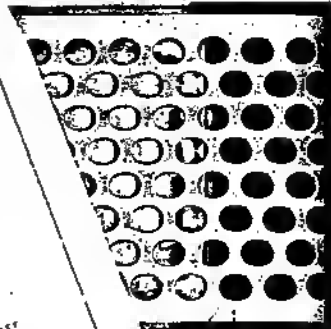

3. Plaintiffs, in respect of all claims for damages, each sue on their own behalf.

4. In respect of the claim for declaratory and injunctive relief, plaintiffs sue on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, pursuant to Rules 23(a), 23(b)(1)(A), 23(b)(2), and 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The class represented by plaintiffs consists of all members of the Kent State University community whom defendants have subjected, or threatened to subject, to the acts set forth below, in deprivation of their First, Fourth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendment rights including, but not limited to, all members of Kent V.V.A.W. and other political action groups in the Kent State University community. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class, whose members are too numerous practically to join, because their claims are typical and because their attorneys are experienced in advancing similar constitutional claims in similar class actions. There are questions of law and fact common to all claims of members of the class, and defendants have acted and threatened to act toward members of the class in such a manner as to make injunctive relief on behalf of the class appropriate.

5. Kent State University, a state university of Ohio, organized and existing under the laws of Ohio, and has its main campus in the City of Kent, Portage County, Ohio;

6. Defendants are as follows:

(a) Defendant James A. Fyke, an employee of Kent University holding the title of Chief of Security; his duties in that position are similar to those of a Chief of Police and include, and included during the period here in issue, the direction and supervision of activities of the Kent State University Security Force, a force of police officers employed by Kent State University; among the activities of members of the Kent State University Security Force during the period in issue were undercover surveillance and monitoring in and about the Kent State University main campus;

(b) Defendant Reinhold Mohr, a member of the Kent State University Security Force, assigned to act in an undercover capacity and monitor and infiltrate certain groups in the area of the Kent State University Main campus:

(c) Defendant Robert C. Dix is president of the Board of Trustees of Kent State University; defendants Baumgardner, Clement, Johns, Porthouse, Stopher, Taylor, Tschantz and Williams are all members of the Board of Trustees of Kent State University. Under the laws of Ohio, the Board of Trustees has general supervisory and rule-making power over Kent State University and is in fact the body which has ultimate responsibility for the operations and policies of the University and the conduct of its employees.

(d) Defendant Glenn Olds is, and was during the period here in issue, the President of Kent State University. By virtue of that office, he is and was chief operating officer of the University, with primary responsibility for carrying out the policies of the Board of Trustees and for supervising the conduct of all employees of Kent State University.

(e) Defendants Williams, Huffman, and Winkler were all employees of Kent State University during the period herein issue and were engaged in security activities in conjunction with defendant Pyke.

(f) Each of the defendants is sued in his individual as to the damage claims and his official capacity as to any declaratory and injunctive relief.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7. In or about the month of January, 1972, the defendants, together with others whose names are not now known to plaintiffs, acting under color of the State authority conferred by their offices and positions, entered into an agreement and conspiracy to authorize and engage in a course of conduct to subject plaintiffs to deprivations of rights, privileges and immunities secured by the United States Constitution and especially the First, Fourth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendments thereto. Pursuant to that agreement and to the directives of the defendant Members of the Board of Trustees and defendant Olds, defendants Fyke, Winkler and Mohr, acting in concert with other defendants and their agents, entered into a course of action which did in fact deprive plaintiffs of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution.

8. The overt conduct in which the defendants engaged and which they authorized pursuant to the conspiracy alleged in paragraph 6, supra, was as follows:

(a) In or about January, 1972, defendant Mohr, acting with the knowledge and at the direction of defendants Fyke and Winkler, "infiltrated" the Kent V.V.A.W. He did so by disguising his identity as a police officer and posing as merely a university student and a Vietnam War veteran who was sympathetic to the purposes of the Kent V.V.A.W. As a result of his imposturing, defendant Mohr joined the Kent V.V.A.W., was invited into the homes and apartments of each of the plaintiffs and taken into their confidence, and was permitted to participate in their meetings and discussions and to share in their privacy. Throughout this period he was operating as an agent of defendants and, while intruding in the private premises of plaintiffs, he was in fact reporting to the other defendants in detail on the activities and private discussions of plaintiffs despite the fact that such activities and discussions were wholly lawful. In addition, as a result of his "infiltration", Defendant Mohr conducted searches of plaintiffs premises, viewed and removed documents and property and, upon information and belief, made copies of same, communicating the information to the other defendants. Such search was never authorized by a search warrant.

(b) On information and belief, sometime in February, 1972, defendants Fyke, Winkler, Mohr and others embarked upon a scheme to discredit plaintiffs, entrap them and ruin their reputations and expose them to baseless criminal prosecutions by planting weapons on their persons. Defendant Mohr, with the aid of the other defendants or their agents, came into possession of certain weapons, including two weapons which he showed to the plaintiffs and represented to them as a Chinese-made AK-47 machine gun and a Vietnamese rocket-propelled grenade launcher, and tried to induce plaintiffs to accept and use such weapons, urging them to use them to kill police officers, whom he referred to as "pigs". Defendant Mohr further attempted to induce the plaintiffs to purchase weapons from or through him, and he told them he could obtain explosives from sources in Southern Ohio and West Virginia. He also urged the plaintiffs to procure ammunition for his own weapons.

(c) In addition, defendant Mohr urged plaintiffs to use explosive devices to blow up campus buildings, including Rockwell Hall, an R.O.T.C. Building.

(d) In each instance when defendant Mohr, at the direction of the other defendants, urged and promoted the foregoing unlawful activities in the presence of the plaintiffs, the plaintiffs rejected his urgings and categorically refused to participate in any of his proposed unlawful acts. As a result of defendants' illegal and entrapment schemes, as expressed by defendant Mohr, plaintiffs discovered and exposed defendant Mohr's deceptions and reported his activities to municipal law enforcement authorities who placed him under arrest for unlawful possession of unregistered weapons.

(e) Each of the individual plaintiffs have been subjected by defendants to either a search of his premises or to infiltration at private meetings and conversations in which he was a discussant or to the defendants' efforts to entrap plaintiffs into committing illegal acts or to more than one of the above.

9. By the foregoing conduct and conspiracy, the defendants under color of their authority as State officials subjected the plaintiffs to deprivation of rights secured by the Constitution in the following manner:

(a) Plaintiffs' rights of privacy under the First, Fourth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendments were invaded by the unlawful conduct of defendants:

(b) The illegal entry of defendant Mohr, a police officer, into plaintiffs' private living premises, for the purpose of creating and gathering evidence and information against the plaintiffs, constituted a warrantless, unreasonable search and seizure in violation of the proscriptions of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments;

(c) The defendants' conduct, in invading private meetings of a lawful political organization engaged in no illegal activity and collecting and reporting information about such meetings as a consequence of false identity, inhibited and interfered with, and will continue to inhibit and interfere with, plaintiffs'

exercise of the freedoms of speech, association and assembly secured by the First and Fourteenth Amendments.

(d) Defendants' efforts to entrap plaintiffs into committing criminal acts, and to subject them to arrest, criminal trial and damage to their reputations as a consequence, constituted a deprivation of liberty and property without due process of law in violation of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution, and a threat to so deprive plaintiffs. In addition, such efforts at entrapment, coming as a result of the exercise of First Amendment rights through lawful political activity, have intimidated plaintiffs and interfered with plaintiffs' future exercise of such rights, in violation of the First Amendment to the Constitution.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

10. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every allegation contained in paragraphs five through nine of their Complaint.

11. Defendants, by engaging in the foregoing conduct as to plaintiffs, deprived them of their rights secured by the laws of Ohio in the following respects:

(a) Defendants invaded the privacy of plaintiffs by intruding into premises, living space, meetings and discussions in which plaintiffs had a legally protected interest in, and expectation of, privacy. They further invaded plaintiffs' right of privacy when defendant Mohr disclosed to the other defendants, and others, information which had come to his knowledge as a result of intrusion on plaintiffs' privacy and which was not within public knowledge.

(b) Defendants intentionally attempted to cause injury to plaintiffs' reputation, and to discredit them, by entrapping them and subjecting them to arrest and trial, which would create the false impression that plaintiffs, rather than limiting themselves to lawful political activities, actually constituted a criminal, anarchic, nihilistic group dedicated to violence;

(c) Defendants illegally conspired to achieve the results set forth in subparagraph (b) of this paragraph;

(d) Defendants intentionally attempted to, and succeeded in, causing emotional harm to plaintiffs by harassing them in the manner set forth above so as to intimidate them in their fully lawful activities;

(e) Defendants, by unconscionable and obtrusive means, intentionally interfered with plaintiffs in their conduct of their normal, lawful activities;

12. Upon information and belief defendants committed the acts set forth above in both claims, maliciously and with the full intention that the injuries to plaintiffs should in fact occur.

13. Upon information and belief, defendants continue to engage in the unlawful activities set forth above as to the named plaintiffs and as to members of the plaintiffs' class and will continue to subject plaintiffs and other members of their class to deprivations of the rights set forth in the foregoing paragraphs unless the relief sought in this action is granted.

14. Plaintiffs believe that, although the granting of compensatory damages and punitive damages will substantially redress the past injuries to the named plaintiffs, and deter further injuries to other members of plaintiffs' class, the remedy at law is not fully adequate and should be supplemented with declaratory and injunctive relief which precludes further activities of the kind in which defendants are engaged.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs request that the Court find the defendants to be jointly and severally liable for the injuries suffered by plaintiffs and grant the following relief:

A. On the First Cause of Action, compensatory damages in the amount of $20,000 as to each plaintiff and punitive damages in an amount which the Court finds to be just and proper, assessing the relative amounts to be paid by each defendant according to his personal knowledge and degree of complicity in the events set forth above.

B. On the Second Cause of Action, compensatory and punitive damages in the same amount as the First Cause of Action.

C. An injunction, enjoining defendants, their agents and successors from authorizing, permitting or engaging in any of the activities set forth above as to any of the plaintiffs and a declaratory judgment declaring the same to be unlawful and limiting the authority of defendants to engage in undercover work to actual crimes which are, in good faith, believed to have occurred or be in the process of occurring prior to the commencement of any such investigations.

D. The reasonable costs and attorney fees of plaintiffs.

E. Such other relief as the Court shall deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Demonstration Against the War
Sponsored by the Vietnam Veterans
Against the War, St. Patrick's Cathedral, 50th Street and
Fifth Avenue, New York City
December 24-25, 1972
Vietnam Demonstration

On December 24, 1972 at 10:50 PM a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed 300 individuals conducting a vigil demonstration outside St. Patrick's Cathedral. The demonstrators stood across the street from the cathedral holding lighted candles and displaying signs which read as follows: "Stop the War", "Stop the Bombing", "We mourn the deaths in Vietnam".

The above mentioned demonstrations was jointly sponsored by the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), and the Women's Strike For Peace (WSP).

The VVAW is a national organization composed primarily of veterans of the war in Vietnam, that has organized and participated in numerous demonstrations against the war in Vietnam during 1970-72, including the seizure of the Statue of Liberty, New York City, and the occupation of the Betsy Ross House, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in December, 1971. Six members of the VVAW were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, Tallahassee, Florida, July, 1972, on charge of conspiracy to violate the Federal Antiriot Law.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

AGENTS OF THE FBI AND LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES:

CONCERNING ARRESTS, A METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT (MPD) SOURCE ADVISED THAT SEVERAL UNAUTHORIZED PERSONS TRIED TO GAIN ENTRANCE TO THE SUPREME COURT GROUNDS ABOUT 11:00 AM THIS DATE AND WERE ARRESTED. NO FURTHER DETAILS WERE IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE. SEVERAL ARRESTS, EXACT NUMBER UNKNOWN, WERE MADE IN THE VICINITY OF 14TH AND PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, NORTHWEST, BETWEEN 1:30 AND 2:30 PM, PRIOR TO THE PRESIDENTIAL MOTORCADE PASSING THAT LOCATION.

REGARDING 14TH AND PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, NORTHWEST, THE NUMBER OF DEMONSTRATORS AT THIS LOCATION FROM 11:30 AM TO 2:30 PM REMAINED AT SEVERAL HUNDRED. THESE PEOPLE WERE NOT ORGANIZED AND MOVED ABOUT, PRIMARILY IN THE PARK IN FRONT OF THE DISTRICT BUILDING. SOURCES IDENTIFIED SOME OF THESE PEOPLE WITH THE SIGN THE TREATY NOW COALITION, AN AD HOC ANTI-WAR GROUP.

THE MPAC/PCPJ MARCH BEGAN FROM THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL ABOUT 1:00 PM AND PROCEEDED EAST ON CONSTITUTION AVENUE. THE LINE OF MARCH STOPPED FREQUENTLY, AND AS OF 2:30 PM, MARCHERS WERE STILL LEAVING THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL. THE LEAD ELEMENTS REACHED THE

NORTH SIDE OF THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT GROUNDS ABOUT 1:30 PM, AND AS OF 2:30 PM THE NUMBER ON THE MONUMENT GROUNDS WAS IN EXCESS OF 40,000 PERSONS. THE Victims of Communism MARCH, WHEN IT REACHED THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL, BEGAN TO DISINTEGRATE AND ALTHOUGH THE LEAD ELEMENTS STARTED TOWARD INDEPENDENCE AVENUE, NORTHWEST, THE REAR JOINED THE NPAC/PCPJ GROUP AT THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL AND THE FRONT ELEMENTS EVENTUALLY TURNED BACK. THIS OCCURRED ABOUT 1:20 PM.

THE SDS RALLY AT UNION STATION BEGAN AT ABOUT 12:30 PM
AND LASTED UNTIL ABOUT 1:15 PM. MARTY RIEFE, SDS LEADER, WAS PRESENT AND ACTED AS CHAIR PERSON. AT ITS CONCLUSION, THE GROUP WHICH NUMBERED ABOUT 2,000 PROCEEDED IN NO PARTICULAR ORDER TO THE EAST OF THE CAPITOL AND THENCE WEST ON INDEPENDENCE AVENUE TOWARD THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT GROUNDS TO JOIN THE NPAC/PCPJ MARCH. THERE WERE NO DISTURBANCES.

POLICE SOURCES ADVISED THAT 142 BUSES CONTAINING DEMONSTRATORS CLEARED THE BALTIMORE MARYLAND HARBOR TUNNEL
ENROUTE WASHINGTON, AN INSTANT AND 82 BUSES WERE COUNTED PROCEEDING
NORTH ON SHIRLEY HIGHWAY, NORTHERN VIRGINIA, TOWARD WASHINGTON.

Assemble at 9:30 in the Arlington Metro Cemetery parking lot

Non-religious ceremony at 10:00, speaker limited to Barry Romo and one Vietnamese woman. March will begin at 10:30, leaving Arlington Cemetery via the access bridge, swinging around the Lincoln Monument circle to Independence Avenue. The march will continue down Independence Ave, turning north onto 4th or 5th St NW to the Mall grounds. The march will halt at the former VVAW campsite for Operation Dewey Canyon III.

At the Mall grounds, Indochinese music will be played, and several tables will be set up to serve hot tea and collect signatures on the 9 point peace treaty. Several established guerrilla theater groups will perform skits related to the Vietnamese struggle and American imperialism. The rally will disperse as people feel the need to leave. (Begin at approximately noon)

Discipline/Security: Each region will be responsible for providing for the identity and discipline within its group. The march will be 4 to 5 abreast to maintain security from infiltrators/provocateurs. The working committee will print a leaflet for distribution with the political reasoning for the tone and nature of self-discipline/security, as per NSC decision.

Banners and signs: The march will be lead by a large banner reading "Vietnam for the Vietnamese Stop the Bombing, Sign the Treaty". Each organization will be allowed one organizational banner and an unlimited number of signs designating support for the 9 Point Peace Plan. No flags of nations will be carried on this march.

Participation: This march will be open to any organization that has consistently supported the Vietnamese plan for peace, and who agrees to the basis of the scenario.

Finances: Each participating region shall pledge $25.00 plus $1.00 per person participating. Any surplus of finances will be used to pay the existing debts of the national office.

Working Committee: The working committee shall consist of people from the Washington, Philadelphia, and Boston regional offices, with a national coordinator from Chicago. Other regions wishing to send advance party personnel should contact D.C. office in advance.

Office address - 1322 18th St. NW, Washington D.C., 20036

Office phone - (202) 785-3111

Medical/communication/food - Every regional group should be prepared to 'feed its' own people. VVAW medical people will act complimentary to existing medical structures. Miami Outreach personnel will be contacted for possible communications support.

Housing: Any people remaining over in D.C. should contact Doug Schocke at the office or his home, (202) 387-0229.

Disposition of the Treaty signatures: Individuals who wish to deliver copies of the treaty signatures will informally do so on January 22, 1973.

General tone: This march will be a disciplined march in support of the 9 Point Peace Plan. It will be a one day public manifestation of our day to day support of this peace plan and the Vietnamese struggle.

West Coast Action: The west coast regions that are planning a supportive demonstration in San Francisco invite any group that can not make the D.C. trip to join them. Any money for the west coast action should be sent to the Chicago Office or a Sub-regional office.

Contingency Plan: In the event that the 9 Point Peace Treaty is signed between now and Jan 2 this demonstration will occur as planned with the central demand being that the U.S. implement the Treaty. The ceremony on the mall will be a ceremony of Solidarity with the Vietnamese.

ENCLOSURE

WORKSHOP ON JANUARY 20th Inauguration Day, Chicago NSCM

In October, the administration announced that peace was at hand. The nine point proposal of the Vietnamese clearly outlined a correct political settlement for the war in Indochina and the signing of this agreement seemed imminent prior to the election for president. After election day, Nixon destroyed the chances for peace that the American and Indochinese peoples clearly wanted. During the Christmas holidays, he answered "peace is at hand" by ordering the most massive bombing in the history of the world.

On January 20th the inauguration of Richard Nixon will represent the continuing degeneration of American principles and a triumph of the continuance of U.S. imperialism.

It is vital that VVAW organize a national action on the 20th in Washington D.C. and encourage similar actions in cities unable to come to Washington, to show the administration and the American people that we support the Indochinese peoples and that we demand that the peace treaty be signed immediately.

This action will represent the only demonstration in Washington that supports the Indochinese struggle and that it is our revolutionary duty to educate the American people to the lies of the administration and to the necessity of immediate signing of the treaty.

We further propose that this demonstration be opened to all people who support the Indochinese and to all organizations that have consistently supported the struggle of the Indochinese peoples.

PROTEST DURING PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION CEREMONIES 1973, 19-20 JANUARY

AT APPROXIMATELY 7 AM ON 1-20-73 SMALL GROUPS OF DEMONSTRATORS AFFILIATED WITH THE VETERANS VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW) BEGAN ARRIVING AT ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY, ARLINGTON, VA.

WHILE THE GROUP NUMBER WAS INCREASING, A FEW ENTERED THE CEMETERY TO WATCH THE CHANGING OF THE GUARD AT THE TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER, WHICH PROCEEDED WITHOUT INCIDENT. BY 9:00 AM THE NUMBER HAD REACHED SEVERAL HUNDREDS. THE GROUP STOOD PEACEFULLY
AWAITING THE SPEECHES TO BEGIN. ST-103

AT APPROXIMATELY 13:45 AM, TIM BUTZ, VVAW ACTIVIST, CALLED FOR THE GROUP TO ASSEMBLE AT THE MAIN GATE. BY THIS TIME THE NUMBER HAD SWELLED TO APPROXIMATELY 2000.

AT 12:50 AM, BUTZ, USING THE SOUND SYSTEM WHICH HAD BEEN SET UP BY MEMBERS OF THE GROUP, BEGAN TELLING THE GROUP OF THE GENERAL PLANS OF THE PROPOSED MARCH, STATING ITS PURPOSE WAS TO SUPPORT THE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT OF VIETNAM AND TO SUPPORT THE SIGNING OF THE 9 POINT PEACE TREATY. HE ALSO SPOKE OF THE RULES OF THE MARCH, WHICH INCLUDED NO FLAGS TO BE CARRIED AND ONLY ORGANIZATIONAL SIGNS TO BE ALLOWED.

BUTZ THEN READ A TELEGRAM WHICH HE STATED HE HAD RECEIVED THIS MORNING FROM MEMBERS OF THE 82ND AIRBORNE DIVISION, FT. BRAGG, N. C., EXPRESSING THEIR SUPPORT OF VVAW'S ACTIVITIES, PROTESTING WHAT THEY CALLED THE PROSTITUTION OF THEIR SENTIMENTS, AND STATING THE DESIRE OF THE INTERNATIONAL WORKING CLASS TO END ALL IMPERIALISTIC VENTURES OF THE U. S.

BUTZ THEN CLOSED HIS REMARKS BY REITERATING THAT THE MARCH SHOULD BE PEACEFUL, STATING THAT THE ONLY THING THE GOVERNMENT WILL FEAR IS A

AT 11 AM, BUTZ INTRODUCED BARRY ~~ROMO~~ (PH), WHO SPOKE TO THE GROUP FOR ABOUT 8 MINUTES, STATING HE HAD RECENTLY RETURNED FROM A 13 DAY TRIP TO HANOI, WHERE HE CARRIED LETTERS TO POW'S AND HAD VISITED SEVERAL SMALL TOWNS. HIS MAIN POINT WAS TO DENOUNCE THE U. S. MILITARY'S ASSERTIONS THAT BOMBS FALLING ON NON- MILITARY TARGETS ARE ERRORS. HE STATED HE HAD SEEN WHERE BOMBS HAD FALLEN IN THE EXACT SAME CRATERS LEFT BY BOMBS THE PREVIOUS DAY, AND HE HAD SEEN AREAS BOMBED THAT WERE OBVIOUSLY NON- MILITARY IN MAKE-UP, CONSISTING MAINLY OF HOMES AND SMALL SHOPS.

FOLLOWING ROMO, BUTZ INTRODUCED A VIETNAMESE GIRL CURRENTLY RESIDING IN WASHINGTON, D.C. SHE SPOKE FOR A FEW MINUTES, DURING WHICH TIME THE PA SYSTEM MALFUNCTIONED SOMEWHAT MAKING IT DIFFICULT FOR THE GROUP TO HEAR HER. BASICALLY, SHE STATED SHE HAD LIVED WITH WAR MOST OF HER LIFE, AND WONDERED WHY INNOCENT PEOPLE WERE BEING KILLED. SHE STATED ALSO THAT THE GROUP HAS A RIGHT TO DEMAND THE SIGNING OF THE TREATY, AND ADDED THAT BECAUSE OF WHAT THE VVAV IS TRYING TO DO, HER PEOPLE HAVE A FEELING OF SOLIDARITY ONCE AGAIN. SHE CLOSED BY STATING THAT THE VIETNAMESE "PEOPLE PEOPLE, NOT THE POLITICAL PEOPLE," SUPPORT THE VVAV'S ACTIONS IN SEEKING PEACE IN VIETNAM.

BUTZ THEN MADE A CALL FOR MONEY, ASKING EACH PERSON IN ATTENDANCE TO DONOTE $1.00. MEMBERS OF THE GROUP THEN PASSED AMONG THEM WITH BUCKETS FOR THE COLLECTION. AT THIS POINT, ONE ATTENDEE BEGAN CALLING FOR THE MARCH TO BEGIN, STATING THAT THIS WAS NO PLACE TO COLLECT MONEY. BUTZ REPLIED THE MARCH WAS TO BE PEACEFUL, THAT OFFICIALS WERE STATING THE VVAV ARE ONLY TROUBLE MAKERS ANYWAY AND THAT THEY SHOULD PROVE THEM WRONG. THE DISSIDENT ONE WAS JOINED BY A FEW OTHERS WHO HOLLARED "RIGHT ON" AT BUTZ'S TROUBLE-MAKERS STATEMENT, BUT THE MAJORITY OF THE GROUP APPLAUDED LOUDLY AT BUTZ'S STATEMENT ABOUT PROVING THE ESTABLISHMENT WRONG. AT THAT POINT ABOUT 5 DEMONSTRATORS WITH VIET CONG FLAGS PUT THEM AWAY.

AT 11:20AM, THE GROUP THEN BEGAN JOINING FOR THE MARCH ACROSS THE MEMORIAL BRIDGE. THE MARCH BEGAN AT APPROXIMATELY 11:45AM, WITH ABOUT 2000 DEMONSTRATORS.

THE GROUP WAS MOSTLY YOUNG, BOTH BOYS AND GIRLS, AND THERE WERE SEVERAL PRIESTS IN ATTENDANCE. SIGNS AND PLACARDS WERE NOTED, WHICH INCLUDED "IMPEACH NIXON," "U.S. OUT NOW," "STOP THE WAR," AND "STOP THE WAR, WE WANT PEACE NOW." ONE LARGE SIGN STATED THE "NEW AMERICAN MOVEMENT." SMALL NUMBERS IN THE GROUP CHANTED, THE CHANTS BEING MOSTLY "1,2,3,4, SIGN THE TREATY AGAINST THE WAR." MANY VEHICLES WERE NOTED PARKED IN A DESIGNATED AREA NEAR THE CEMETARY, WITH LICENSE TAGS FROM ALMOST EVERY STATE EAST OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

BY ABOUT NOON, THE GROUP HAD GONE ON TO THE MEMORIAL BRIDGE TOWARD WASHINGTON, D. C., AND THE MARCH PROCEEDED WITHOUT INCIDENT.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURAL CEREMONIES, NINETEEN SEVENTY THREE.

by 1st. Veterans Against the War

SOURCES ONE, TWO AND THREE, WHO HAVE FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, REPORTED TODAY THAT FINAL PLANS FOR DEMONSTRATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE JANUARY TWENTY INAUGURAL CEREMONIES, IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, ARE STILL IN A STATE OF CONFUSION. VARIOUS GROUPS WHO WISH TO TAKE SOME ACTION PROTESTING THE WAR POLICIES OF PRESIDENT NIXON'S ADMINISTRATION CANNOT AGREE ON A JOINT ACTION. CONSEQUENTLY THERE ARE NUMEROUS SMALL ACTIONS PLANNED IN DIFFERENT AREAS AND BY DIFFERENT GROUPS.

THESE SOURCES INDICATE THE TWO MAJOR ANTIWAR ORGANIZATIONS IN THE GREATER LOS ANGELES METROPOLITAN AREA, THE NATIONAL PEACE ACTION COALITION (NPAC), AND THE PEACE ACTION COUNCIL (PAC), ARE STILL AT ODDS WITH EACH OTHER, AND ARE PLANNING SEPARATE ACTIONS NEXT SATURDAY. HOWEVER, THEY HAVE AGREED IN PART TO JOIN

AT THE CONCLUSION OF THEIR RESPECTIVE PROTESTS MARCHES. THEY WILL BOTH TERMINATE THEIR MARCHES AT THE WEST STEPS OF THE LOS ANGELES CITY HALL, SPRING AND FIRST STREETS, AND HOLD A MASS RALLY AT THAT LOCATION.

THE NPAC WAS FOUNDED IN NINETEEN SEVENTY, BY MEMBERS OF THE SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP). ITS BASIC OBJECTIVE IS TO UNITE MASSES OF PEOPLE, INCLUDING LABOR UNIONS, GI'S AND THE BLACK COMMUNITY IN A STRUGGLE TO END UNITED STATES INTERVENTION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, THROUGH ORDERLY AND PEACEFUL TACTICS. THE SWP HAS BEEN DESIGNATED PURSUANT TO EXECUTIVE ORDER ONE ZERO FOUR FIVE ZERO.

THE PAC IS AN UMBRELLA ORGANIZATION WHICH COORDINATES DEMONSTRATIONS AND OTHER FORMS OF PROTESTS AGAINST AMERICAN INVOLVEMENT IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. [REDACTED] b7C

[REDACTED] WAS ATTENDING MEETINGS OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRICT COMMUNIST PARTY AS RECENTLY AS NOVEMBER NINETEEN SIXTY SIX.

TODAY, COPIES OF A LEAFLET ISSUED BY THE STUDENT MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE (SMC) WERE BEING DISTRIBUTED ON THE CAMPUS AT THE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES (UCLA), WHICH STATED

PENTAGON PAPERS TRIAL; RAOUL TIEHET, PRESIDENT, CALIFORNIA
FEDERATION OF TEACHERS, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF TEACHERS (AFT); ERIKA HUGGINS, BLACK PANTHER PARTY" (BPP).

ANTHONY RUSSO PRESENTLY IS CO-DEFENDANT WITH DANIEL
ELLSBERG, IN THE CURRENT FEDERAL TRIAL BASED ON ALLZGED
LEAKING TO THE NEWS MEDIA OF A CLASSIFIED STUDY ON THE VIETNAM WAR, WHICH HAD BEEN COMMISSIONED BY THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.

SOURCE FOUR, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED DURING THE SUMMER OF NINETEEN SEVENTY TWO, THAT RAOUL TIEHET, OF THE AFT, WAS ONE OF SEVEN
SIGNERS OF AN INVITATION WHICH RECEIVED WIDE PUBLIC
DISTRIBUTION THROUGHOUT SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, WHICH URGED
THE PUBLIC TO ATTEND AND SUPPORT A NATIONAL ANTIWAR
CONVENTION UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF THE NPAC, BEING HELD ON THE UCLA CAMPUS DURING JULY SEVENTY TWO.

ETIKA HUGGINS WAS PUBLICLY DESCRIBED IN THE "HARTFORD COURANT", HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT, DAILY NEWSPAPER ISSUE OF APRIL ONE, NINETEEN SIXTY NINE, AS THEN THE EDUCATION DIRECTOR OF THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY IN NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT. THE BPP IS A BLACK EXTREMIST ORGANIZATION STARTED IN OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, IN DECEMBER NINETEEN SIXTY SIX. IT ADVOCATES THE USE OF GUNS AND GUERRILLA TACTICS TO BRING ABOUT THE OVERTHROW OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

SOURCE FIVE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, REPORTED TODAY THAT THE VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW) HAVE OBTAINED FROM THE CITY OF SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, A PERMIT FOR A MARCH AND RALLY IN THAT CITY ON INAUGURATION DAY. MARCHERS WILL ASSEMBLE AT BIRCH STREET PARK, THIRD AND BIRCH STREETS AT ELEVEN THIRTY A.M., AND MARCH TO EL SALVADOR PARK, ON WEST CIVIC CENTER DRIVE, SANTA ANA FOR THEIR ANTIWAR RALLY. MARCH AND RALLY TO LAST FROM TWELVE NOON TO FOUR P.M., JANUARY TWENTY. ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE AND SANTA ANA POLICE DEPARTMENT COGNIZANT.

VVAV IS AN ANTIWAR ORGANIZATION WHICH WAS ORGANIZED IN NINETEEN SIXTY SEVEN AND IS HEADQUARTERED IN NEW YORK CITY. ITS PUBLISHED OBJECTIVE IS "TO DEMAND AN IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF ALL AMERICAN TROOPS FROM INDOCHINA."

SOURCE SIX WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST , REPORTED THAT A PRESS CONFERENCE WAS HELD TODAY AT THE GREATER LOS ANGELES PRESS CLUB BY REPRESENTATIVES OF GROUPS WHICH WOULD BE DEMONSTRATING AGAINST THE WAR IN THE LOS ANGELES AREA ON INAUGURATION DAY. A SPOKESMAN FROM THE WVA, INDICATED HIS GROUP WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE RALLY AT THE LOS ANGELES CITY HALL AND THAT SOME INDIVIDUALS FROM WVA WOULD ALSO PARTICIPATE IN AN ACTION IN SANTA ANA.

SOURCE ONE ALSO REPORTED A LEAFLET WAS POSTED IN THE PAC OFFICE TODAY, ANNOUNCING A RALLY AND DEMONSTRATION AGAINST THE WAR IN VIETNAM AND IN SUPPORT OF THE STAND TAKEN BY CAPTAIN MICHAEL HECK IN REFUSING TO PARTICIPATE IN ANY MORE BOMBING RAIDS OVER NORTH VIETNAM. THIS RALLY WILL BE HELD ON THE CAMPUS AT WHITTIER COLLEGE, WHITTIER, CALIFORNIA, STARTING AT ELEVEN A.M., JANUARY TWENTY. NO SPONSOR WAS LISTED ON THE LEAFLET WHICH ANNOUNCED THIS EVENT. INFORMANT WAS OF THE OPINION THAT ALL ANTIWAR GROUPS WOULD ATTEMPT TO CAPITALIZE ON THIS PARTICULAR DEMONSTRATION SINCE IT IS BEING HELD ON THE DATE OF THE PRESIDENT'S SECOND INAUGURATION AT THE CAMPUS FROM WHICH HE GRADUATED.

SOURCE SEVEN WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, HAS ADVISED THE FOLLOWING ANTIWAR ACTIONS ARE PLANNED IN SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA ON INAUGURATION DAY. VERY EARLY IN THE MORNING OF JANUARY TWENTY, STUDENTS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA (UCSB) WILL MEET IN PERFECT PARK, ISLA VISTA, CALIFORNIA (ADJACENT TO UCSB CAMPUS) AND FORM A CARAVAN TO DOWNTOWN SANTA BARBARA WHERE THEY WILL LEAFLET VARIOUS BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS. FROM THERE SOME WILL THEN GO TO THE SANTA BARBARA MISSION AT SIX A.M. FOR A SUNRISE SERVICE, WHILE OTHERS CONTINUE TO LEAFLET UNTIL TEN A.M. AT THE LATTER HOUR A RELIGIOUS SERVICE WILL BE HELD AT ALAMEDA CITY PARK, SANTA BARBARA. AT ELEVEN A.M. A MARCH WILL BEGIN AT ALAMEDA CITY PARK WHICH WILL CONTINUE DOWN STATE STREET THROUGH THE SANTA BARBARA BUSINESS DISTRICT TERMINATING AT LA PLAYA STREET ENTRANCE TO SANTA BARBARA CITY COLLEGE (SBCO) WHERE A PEACE RALLY WILL BE HELD AT TWELVE NOON. SOURCE EXPECTS APPROXIMATELY ONE THOUSAND PERSONS WILL ATTEND. THE ACTION IS BEING JOINTLY SPONSORED BY THE COMMUNITY UNION (CU) OF SANTA BARBARA AND NUMEROUS CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS IN THE SANTA BARBARA AREA.

SOURCE SEVEN REPORTS THE COMMUNITY UNION IS A COALITION OF COMMUNITY GROUPS WORKING TOGETHER IN SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA FOR SOCIAL CHANGE. IT INCLUDES IN ITS MEMBERSHIP THE VVAW AND THE PEOPLE'S CAUCUS: WHICH LATTER GROUP IS A LOOSELY

ORGANIZED AD HOC GROUP OF INDIVIDUALS SPONTANEOUSLY FORMED IN SANTA BARBARA IN APRIL NINETEEN SEVENTY TWO TO PROTEST THE INCREASED BOMBING AND THE BLOCKADE OF NORTH VIETNAM. THE PEOPLE'S CAUCUS IS PRESENTLY AN OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED CAMPUS ORGANIZATION AT UCSB.

SOURCE ONE THROUGH THREE HAVE REPORTED THAT ALTHOUGH ANNOUNCEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA REGARDING ACTIONS TO TAKE PLACE IN WASHINGTON, D.C. AND SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA ON INAUGURATION DAY, THERE IS NO INFORMATION TO INDICATE ANY ACTIVISTS FROM THIS AREA INTEND TO TRAVEL TO THE ABOVE LOCATIONS WHEN THERE ARE SO MANY ACTIONS PLANNED IN THE IMMEDIATE AREA. SOURCE EIGHT WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST REPORTED THAT INDIVIDUALS WHO ATTENDED THE VVAV CONFERENCE IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, EARLY IN JANUARY, SEVENTY TWO, REPORTED THAT THOSE WHO ATTENDED THE CONFERENCE WERE URGED TO PARTICIPATE IN EITHER THE ACTIONS AT SAN FRANCISCO OR WASHINGTON, BUT BECAUSE OF THE EXPENSE INVOLVED, LOCAL VVAV MEMBERS WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE LOCAL ACTIONS SET OUT ABOVE RATHER THAN TRAVEL TO EITHER WASHINGTON OR SAN FRANCISCO.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING PRESIDENTIAL
INAUGURATION, 1973

[REDACTED] advised that at approximately 9:30 am, January 20, 1973, members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) assembled at the Arlington National Cemetery in preparation for demonstration activities in connection with the inauguration of President Nixon. [REDACTED] identified the following individuals from the Midwest Region assembled at the cemetery: (S) u

b7D

[REDACTED], a former VVAW active member and [REDACTED] who is a member of the Lawrence, Kansas Chapter of the VVAW. Source also recognized several other individuals who are known members of the Emporia, Kansas Chapter of the VVAW. (S) u

b7C

The VVAW was founded in the spring of 1967 by six young Vietnam veterans in New York City. At the beginning of 1968, with 600 members, VVAW opened a national office, founded the first GI newspaper, "VIETNAM GI", and sent close to 500 veterans into the McCarthy campaign to beat down the red baiters. After getting gassed at the Democratic convention at Chicago and caught in the general "down" of the peace movement, VVAW was nearly inactive until the moratoriums in the fall of 1969. Members of VVAW led student strikes on major campuses across the country and battled Veterans Administration Hospital authorities over threats to throw amputee Vietnam veterans out for signing anti-war petitions. At present, membership of the VVAW nationally consists of 8,500 members.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING PRESIDENTIAL
INAUGURATION, 1973

While assembled at the cemetery, VVAW members were addressed by the head of the Chicago Chapter of the VVAW known to source as Savage, and Savage criticized the Nixon administration for "ravaging the country" and called the President a "war monger". Source indicated that Savage was seen participating in VVAW-sponsored trips to Cairo, Illinois, held in 1972. (S) u

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Source advised that the VVAW Contingent then formed ranks six abreast and marched across the Memorial Bridge past the Lincoln Monument and stopped near the Washington Monument. At this location, [REDACTED] an officer of the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the VVAW, organized the signing of a peace treaty, copies of which were to be delivered to the President as well as the South Vietnamese government. Soon thereafter, other peace groups joined the VVAW participants in a common protest. (S) u b7C

[REDACTED] indicated that approximately 25,000 to 35,000 people were assembled in the vicinity of the Washington Monument to protest. b2 b7D

[REDACTED] advised that there were no incidences of violence or any conspiracy to commit acts of violence or police confrontations.

SI 100-13472

On 10/24/72 [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] was not enrolled as a student or employed as an employee at the University of Illinois. A check of the records on 1/26/73 with [REDACTED] revealed that [REDACTED] was not a graduate of the University of Illinois and that he has apparently not requested his transcripts be forwarded to any other educational institution. b2 b7D b7C

RECOMMENDATION:

Based on the subject's lack of activity, the fact that he has never had any military training which would be conducive to guerrilla-type operations in an urban environment, and on his apparent negative political activity with regard to VVAW, the subject is not recommended for the ADEX and Springfield is going to discontinue active investigation of this case. In light of the fact that the subject is currently employed in an environment outside of the area of political activity involving VVAW, such that it is, it is felt that an interview at this time would be generally counterproductive with regard to beneficial information.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) has been publicly identified as an organization formed in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, during May, 1971, from the Vietnam veterans who returned from participating in Washington, D. C., demonstrations held during April, 1971. This organization consists of various Vietnam veteran returnees and their main purpose is protesting the war and racism.

A Regional Conference meeting of the VVAW was held at Fredonia, Wisconsin, during the period December 29-31, 1972. Details of this meeting, which were obtained by a confidential source who has provided reliable information in the past, are as follows:

ENCLOSURE

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR
REGIONAL CONFERENCE
FREDONIA, WISCONSIN
DECEMBER 29-31, 1972

On December 29, 1972, approximately 25 to 30 individuals gathered at 2532 North Holton Avenue in Milwaukee, which is the local chapter headquarters for the VVAW. At approximately 5 p.m., these individuals departed, traveling to the Jewish Community Center Lodge in Fredonia. They were to attend the VVAW Regional Conference scheduled to be held from December 29th through December 31st. This Conference was organized by John Lindquist, current Regional Coordinator; Ann Bailey, Regional Secretary; and Paul Ruez, Peace Education Director, all of whom are from Milwaukee.

Buzz Moyes, former Regional Coordinator, was noted at the local headquarters for VVAW; however, due to recent factionalism and loss of his position, he did not travel with the group to attend the Conference.

These individuals arrived at the Jewish Community Center Lodge at approximately 7 p.m. As other individuals arrived for the Conference, films and slides on the Vietnam War were shown. The remainder of the evening consisted of socializing and smoking "pot."

Source advised that the majority of individuals present were from the States of Wisconsin and Minnesota, which comprises the Region; however, there were also several individuals from the State of Illinois present.

On December 30, 1972, individuals present registered. Those attending paid a $5 fee. Approximately 45 people registered, after which slides on the Vietnam War were again shown.

Thereafter, a discussion on objectives of the National VVAW was held. It was noted, during this discussion, that the objectives were formulated at a National Steering Committee meeting held in Palo Alto, California, during September, 1972.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR
REGIONAL CONFERENCE
FREDONIA, WISCONSIN
DECEMBER 29-31, 1972

Following a lengthy discussion of the first three objectives, during which each objective was discussed on almost a word-by-word basis, it was decided to change the word "Indochinese" in Objective Number 2 to "Southeast Asia." Following this change, it was decided, by those present, to hold further discussion on the remaining seven objectives at later regional meetings.

The next order of business was the National Budget Report, which was furnished by [redacted] of Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] indicated that although there are currently two to three thousand active VVAW members nationally, the organization as such is without funds. [redacted] stated that the next National Steering Committee meeting will be held in Chicago during the period January 4-8, 1973. b7C b7D

Following [redacted] report, John Lindquist and Ann Bailey furnished the Regional Report. After this report, discussion ensued regarding various demonstrations which had taken place in Milwaukee during the past four months. b7C

Lindquist then discussed the matter of AWOL soldiers and indicated that in the Milwaukee area individuals who are AWOL could contact [redacted] for assistance. b7C

Following Lindquist's remarks, those present adjourned for lunch.

After the luncheon recess, Lindquist spoke at length regarding the Post Vietnam Syndrome (PVS), which he compared to the old Army phrase of being "shell shocked." He also described it as a uniquely intense sort of post trauma syndrome.

Along this line, Lindquist described a case history of an individual, whom he claimed was a personal friend, who had served in Vietnam during 1965. Lindquist

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR
REGIONAL CONFERENCE
FREDONIA, WISCONSIN
DECEMBER 29-31, 1972

indicated this individual had been discharged from the Army for psychiatric reasons and found, upon his return to the United States, that he had to turn to alcohol and drugs to "ease nightmares." During one of these nightmares, his wife awakened him, whereupon he shot and killed her with a gun which he kept nearby. He was subsequently tried and convicted of murder. Lindquist indicated that this individual attempted to seek help from the Veterans Administration but that help was "refused."

Following Lindquist's remarks on PVS, [REDACTED] and another individual spoke regarding their attempts to develop new VVAW chapters at Waukesha and Oshkosh, Wisconsin; however, they are having little success in their recruiting attempts. b7c

In this regard, Lindquist mentioned that discussions have been held regarding contacting prisoners at the Wisconsin State Prison at Waupun in an effort to form a VVAW Chapter among the prisoners.

Following the discussion on recruiting and developing new chapters, those present discussed the possibility of individuals from the Region traveling to Washington, D. C., to participate in demonstrations during the Presidential Inauguration in January, 1973. Discussions were also brought forth that six VVAW members would be on trial in Gainesville, Florida, at approximately the same time; and several individuals present felt that instead of traveling to Washington, D. C., the Region should send representatives to Florida to participate in demonstrations being called in support of those members on trial.

Following discussion a vote was taken, and it was unanimously decided by those present that the Gainesville trial should take precedence over the Presidential Inauguration.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR
REGIONAL CONFERENCE
FREDONIA, WISCONSIN
DECEMBER 29-31, 1972

Following this voting, the below-listed individuals were elected to attend the National Steering Committee meeting to be held in Chicago from January 4th through January 8th:

John Lindquist

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

b7C

Due to sleeping and eating accommodations in Chicago during the National Steering Committee meeting, only three individuals from each region could be selected to attend.

A Women's Report was then furnished, which consisted of a brief demonstration showing a Women's Caucus. The following individuals took part in this mock meeting:

b7C

After the mock meeting, the remainder of the evening was spent in social gathering and smoking "pot."

On December 31, 1972, the majority of the morning consisted entirely of smoking "pot."

DECEMBER 29-31, 1972

John Lindquist did furnish a short report on the establishment of a PVS Library, stating that material in the Library could be charged out concerning PVS. A short discussion was also held regarding heroin and its uses.

It was decided, by those present, that the next Regional Conference would be held sometime during March, 1973, the time and place to be decided upon at a later date.

The remainder of the Conference consisted of participants once again smoking "pot," ending with a general clean-up of the facilities.

The Conference was adjourned at approximately 2 p.m.

Of those in attendance at the Conference, the following were noted:

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Washington, D. C.
February 5, 1973

PROTESTS DURING PRESIDENTIAL
INAUGURAL CEREMONIES, 1973

On January 20, 1973, a confidential source advised that an estimated 2,000 members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) gathered at Arlington National Cemetery. The gathering began around 9:00 AM, Saturday morning, January 20, 1973, and it was not until around 12:30 PM, that the VVAW gathering began its march in columns of six across the Arlington Memorial Bridge. There were approximately 15 to 20 persons present from the Tampa and St. Petersburg, Florida, area.

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a national office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

The VVAW marchers encountered a large group from the National Peace Action Coalition after crossing the bridge and any former organization to the VVAW march was lost at this time as the VVAW members mingled with the National Peace Action Coalition group.

The National Peace Action Coalition was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GIs, and the black community in the struggle to end U. S. intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

PROTESTS DURING PRESIDENTIAL
INAUGURAL CEREMONIES, 1973

Members of the VVAW were then requested to sign a Treaty of Peace concerning the war in Vietnam. Source advised that there were apparently only two lines for signing the treaty and that most persons waiting to sign the treaty became restless and tired, and split off in numerous small groups in all directions.

The confidential source advised from this time on the VVAW never again assembled as one group and that various individuals had apparently joined other groups who were milling around the Reflecting Pool and Washington Monument with no apparent plan of demonstration.

Most members and associates of the VVAW began wandering back to their cars at the Arlington National Cemetery and apparently left the Washington, D. C. area in the mid and late afternoon of January 20, 1973.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is not recommended that [REDACTED] be interviewed at the present time since it is felt that said interview would be counterproductive in terms of current information. Based on subject's activities and background, he is not recommended for the ADEX at the present time. Based on the demise of the VVAW as a viable campus organization in July, 1972, and of the relative lack of activities of both the veterans and the subject since that time, Springfield is going to discontinue active investigation of this case. However, subject's activities will continue to be monitored insofar as possible and should information become available to indicate that the subject is active again in VVAW activities and as a result has become a threat, active investigation will be reinstituted.
